

Champion Manyonga jumping ship

● World long-jump champion and Olympic silver medallist Luvo Manyonga was leaving his University of Pretoria base after two years to move to Port Elizabeth, the university's sports body said on Tuesday.

TuksSport played a key role in helping the 26-year-old fight his addiction to tik and getting him back into competition last year after four years away. — TimesLIVE

