

Top Varsity Cricket in Potch

POTCHEFSTROOM will once again play host to Varsity Cricket for six days of action from January 29 to February 3 with NWU (North-West University) out to defend their T20 title in the eight-team competition at the Senwes Park, NWU-Puk and Ibbies Ovals.

The first round of fixtures will take place on January 29, when the crowd will be treated to a repeat of last year's final as NWU take on 2017's runners-up, UP-Tuks (University of Pretoria).

UWC (University of the Western Cape) will go head-to-head with their Western Province rivals Maties (University of Stellenbosch), while UJ (University of Johannesburg) will look to get the better of the Port Elizabeth-based Madibaz (Nelson Mandela University).

The first day of Varsity Cricket 2018 will end with an exciting match-up between CUT (Central University of Technology) and UCT (University of Cape Town).

CUT joins the competition this year after knocking out Kovies (University of the Free State) at the USSA (University Sports South Africa) qualifier in October 2017. – African News Agency/ANA
