

Varsity Cricket back with a bang

The 2018 Varsity Cricket tournament starts on Monday 29 January, with all roads leading to Senwes Park in Potchefstroom.

Maties, who crashed out in last year's semi-final against Tuks, will start their campaign at 14:00 against UJ at the Ibbies Oval.

On day two the team from Stellenbosch, with new coach Ryan Bailey, will face CUT at 09:30 at the Ibbies Oval, before facing the Madibaz at 18:00 at Senwes Park, with all teams playing two matches each.

Maties start day three with a match against the old foe Tuks at the NWU-Puk Oval at 09:30, before facing the defending champions, and hosts, Pukke at 18:00.

This match will also be televised live on SuperSport.

Days four and five see Maties only playing one match each, with UWC first in line at 14:00 at Senwes Park, and UCT being Maties' last round-robin match also at 14:00 at the Ibbies Oval.

The semi-final and final, all to be televised, take place on Saturday 3 February.
