

ONE HIT WONDERS FEATURE

DID YOU KNOW?

Mngadi spent time at the Aspire Academy in Qatar before turning professional.

THULISANI LATHA

Club: Bloemfontein Celtic

Season: 2009/10

Appearance: Bloemfontein Celtic 1
 AmaZulu 1

Latha was the only player in the 2008/09 season to make just a single appearance for their club and then disappear.

He was signed by Bloemfontein Celtic in the final hours of deadline day on September 1, 2009, adding to then coach Owen da Gama's forward options.

And a debut was not far off as he started the 1-1 draw with AmaZulu, but was taken off just past the hour-mark and not seen again as injuries took their toll.

He was no youngster either, having turned out for Rangers FC in the lower leagues, and was already 26 when he made his PSL bow.

Latha was among a number of players released at the end of the season.

LUCKY MNGADI

Club: Classic

Season: 2000/01

Appearance: Classic 1
 Mamelodi Sundowns 3 (as a sub)

Mngadi was a promising player at Johannesburg side Classic, but was tragically murdered before he could fulfil his potential.

The youngster made his PSL bow as a substitute in a 3-1 loss to Mamelodi Sundowns in March 2001, which would be his one and only moment in the limelight. Details around his death were never fully explained but he is remembered as a budding young star who could have gone on to enjoy a successful top-flight career.

"He used to remind me of Ace Ntsoelengoe with the way he walked and didn't say much," his coach Khabo Zondo, told KICK OFF. "It was so sad to lose a player who had such a bright future ahead of him."

PHAKAMANI MNGADI

Club: Kaizer Chiefs

Season: 2014/15

Appearance: Kaizer Chiefs 2
 University of Pretoria 1 (as a sub)

Mngadi is still a youngster at 22 and may yet return to play in the PSL, but is now among the reserves at former side Eupen in Belgium.

The winger was signed on loan by Chiefs ahead of their victorious 2014/15 season, but can barely lay claim to having had a helping hand as he played a total of just seven minutes in one substitute outing against University of Pretoria in September 2014.

To be fair, he had an in-form Mandla Masango ahead of him in the pecking order that campaign, and as a youngster with next to no experience in the top-flight, failed to convince Stuart Baxter that he could fill in when Masango was absent.

JOAKIM MOGOHLO

Club: Orlando Pirates

Season: 2000/01

Appearance: Orlando Pirates 1
 Wits University 1

Mogohlo came through the ranks at Orlando Pirates, making his debut in a 1-1 draw against Wits University in September 2000. But that would be it for him in a competitive fixture in front of The Ghost.

Mogohlo was involved in one notable friendly incident in December 1999 when he was part of the Pirates side that played in Botswana against local side Notwane.

He was one of the "schoolboys" taken on the trip, a reference made by local fans who were upset Bucs did not bring their full complement of players. With Pirates trailing 4-3, they were awarded a penalty to level the score. Mogohlo stepped up ... and missed.
