

FEATURE ONE HIT WONDERS

DANIEL MOLEBATS

Club: Orlando Pirates
Season: 2005/06
Appearance: Orlando Pirates 0
 Maritzburg Classic 0 (as a sub)

Young striker Molebatsi thought he was getting an early Christmas present when he was handed his Orlando Pirates bow just before the festive season break in December 2005.

He came on as a substitute in a 0-0 draw with Maritzburg Classic, but that would be the last time The Ghost saw him in action in a competitive fixture.

He later played a few friendly games, but never quite cut it in the South African top flight.

Molebatsi, known as 'Dompie', was signed after a successful trial six months earlier in which he netted a brace in a friendly against Northern Cape lower league side Matsatsantsa.

WILKO RISSE

Club: Chippa United
Season: 2012/13
Appearance: Chippa United 1
 Mamelodi Sundowns 1

Newly-promoted Chippa United brought in Namibia international Risser in September 2012 and there were high hopes he would be the one to solve their scoring problems.

But within four months he was out the door having made just a single appearance for the side as their battles continued. Risser started in a 1-1 draw with Mamelodi Sundowns in December 2012, a credible scoreline for the minnow team.

But the player, who also has stints in the lower leagues in Germany and England, failed to impress and was axed before the end of his contract the next February.

Chippa would be his last professional club as Risser retired from playing shortly after his departure.

DAVID TELFER

Club: Free State Stars
Season: 2008/09
Appearance: Mamelodi Sundowns 1
 Free State Stars 0

Telfer was a Ghana international who made a name for himself playing for Ashanti Gold in his homeland, and would even later have a career in Romania.

But he did not cut it in the PSL, having joined Free State Stars on loan in a deal that also brought Jonathan Mensah to Ea La Koto.

The pair were signed by Ghana coach David Duncan, who left just months after arriving, with Telfer playing the full game as Mamelodi Sundowns defeated Stars 1-0 in an MTNB quarterfinal.

A knee injury stunted his progress to a certain extent, but he was also not utilised by the Free State club and eventually left after one season. KD
