

THE LATEST NFD NEWS

- While ex-NFD outfit, Swallows FC, (formerly Moroka Swallows) won four of their last five matches to reach the top six of the Gauteng ABC Motsepe League after 12 games, it's a very different story for Garankuwa United, who look doomed following just one victory in 13 encounters.

- Talented striker, Thabiso Sangweni, who scored six goals for SAB outfit, Thuthuka FC, during four recent Nedbank Cup qualifying games, has been snapped up by Jomo Cosmos. "Richards Bay FC and Baberwa FC were originally interested because the boy has a killer instinct. He's physically strong with natural aggression and very composed in the box," said a source.

- Due to a shortage of stadiums in the Western Cape, Stellenbosch FC has engaged their local municipality to see whether they can work together to upgrade one of the communal facilities. "The PSL was invited to inspect and give the necessary recommendations," a club source told Soccer Laduma.

- Tshakhuma Tsha Madzivhandila FC's top goalscorer, Monde Mpambaniso, wasn't able to add to his tally last weekend. "After picking up four yellow cards, I was suspended for our match against University of Pretoria," he said.

- Two Uthongathi FC stars, Ntwenhle Zondo (left back) and Dacien Ngwetjana (right winger), whose contracts expire in June 2018, could be lost to the club. "Ngwetjana is already the talk of the town, while Zondo's developing into a great defender," said a source.

- Mbombela United's long-serving striker, Inky Masuku, is getting a lot more game-time than his younger brother, Sibusiso, of Tshakhuma Tsha Madzivhandila FC.

