

McCarthy turns to old teammate

BENNI McCarthy is turning to his former national team strike partner Shaun Bartlett for some help ahead of his managerial debut on Saturday when Cape Town City take on Polokwane City in the MTN8 quarterfinals.

Bartlett's University of Pretoria side played against Polokwane City in a preseason friendly last week and McCarthy has called up his old Bafana Bafana teammate to provide some insight on the opposition.

"Hopefully, Shaun can come through with some footage of their friendly game and information on how they set up and the personnel they are going to use more or less so that we have an idea," McCarthy said. — Mark Gleeson
