

NFD SEASON KICKS OFF ON AUGUST 19

THE new National First Division (NFD) season will kick off on Saturday, August 19 and the last fixture block will be on May 6, 2018.

On Saturday, Highlands Park will start their campaign to reclaim their Premier Division spot when they play Jomo Cosmos at Makhulong Stadium.

On the same day, Black Leopards will travel to Mpumalanga to play Mbombela United at KaNyamazane Stadium while University of Pretoria will be hosting Mthatha Bucks at Tuks Stadium.

Newly-promoted club Uthongathi FC will play Royal Eagles at the Princess Magogo Stadium, also on Saturday.

The last fixture on the day will be Witbank Spurs against another newly-promoted outfit, Super Eagles, at Puma Stadium.

On Sunday, Richards Bay United will play Real Kings at Umhlatuze Sport Complex, while Tshakuma Tsha Madzvhadila FC will face Cape Town All Stars in Giyani Stadium.

Next Monday, Ubuntu Cape Town will play Stellenbosch FC in the Cape Town derby.

All matches will kick off at 3 pm.
