Witbank Spurs had not lost a game this season, however that was changed when they were defeated by University of Pretoria. Spurs have played four games, won once and drew thrice. Spurs hosted AmaTuks on Saturday, September 23 at Puma Rugby Stadium. Supporters came in numbers to back up the boys.

When the whistle was blown both teams showed enthusiasm and hunger to score goals. By half time the score was 0-0. In the second half, the teams continued to create chances to score but in countless attempts, players failed to see the back of the net. Khethukuthula Zwane was one player who kept AmaTuks players on their toes as he showed excellence on the field. Twelve minutes into the game, Peter Mubayiwa scored an opening goal which placed Spurs in the lead ahead of their opposition.

However Spurs joy was short lived as in the 68th minute Mfanafuthi Shoji from AmaTuks scored a goal placing both teams in a tie.

AmaTuks made substitutions such as Ian Chikohwa who replaced Brendon Konki and Henrico Botes was in for Mogau Khwinana. Spurs also made a few substitutions.

The second goal from AmaTuks was conceded by Grant Bruchhausen. As their opposition was in the lead Spurs were amped and put in a lot of effort to try win the game. Christian Jamaine took a shot but unfortunately missed. An extra six minutes was added, when the referee blew the final whistle the score was 1 to Spurs and 2 to AmaTuks. Spurs is eighth on the log at the time of going to print. Spurs next match will take place at Giyani Stadium, playing against Tshakhuma Tsha Madzivhadila FC on Sunday, October 1.
