

and AmaTuks continue their magic 2017 run?

fit face Super Eagles in Goble Park on Sunday.

Cosmos's good run has been characterised by their ability to score more goals than any other NFD side, the 26 strikes taking them to second place heading into the festive break, two points behind Highlands (30).

Cosmos meet Real Kings at Sugar Ray Xulu Stadium tomorrow (3.30pm).

AmaTuks, on the other hand, did not start the season so well. They lost 5-0 to Cosmos in their second game of the campaign and that humiliation proved to be a wake-up call.

The Tshwane-based side went on to win their next four games, one of those wins coming against Highlands in September.

The NFD programme resumes today with the fixture between Cape Town All Stars and Mthatha Bucks at Parow Park (3.30pm).
