

Ubuntu want another PSL scalp

MINENHLE MKHIZE

UBUNTU Cape Town FC coach Casey Prince wants to play another Absa Premiership side in the quarter-finals of the Nedbank Cup.

Ubuntu are enjoying giant-killing status in this year's edition of the country's premier club knockout competition. They booked their place in the last eight after beating AmaZulu 3-2 at King Zwelithini Stadium in Umlazi, Durban on Friday.

Their victory over Usuthu came after they defeated Polokwane City, another elite league side, in the last 32 round.

Speaking with the media after the match Prince stated that his desire is to come up against another top league side. The draw will take place on Thursday in Cape Town.

"Yes I would love to face another PSL team. We play these NFD teams all the time and I really don't want to play them again. I know that there's still ABC Motsepe League teams involved in the competition. I've joked with coach Benni (McCarthy, coach of Cape Town City) that maybe we will get to face off, we've never lost to them in friendly matches. Maybe we get to play a Cape Town derby. I would actually prefer a PSL team, it is what the event is about. Smaller clubs getting to play the big boys. It allows us to be free. There's no fear and there's no pressure on us. Our advantage over our opponents is that we don't have pressure and they are the one who have the pressure," he said.

Ubuntu are fighting for their lives in the NFD. They are 12th on the log with 24 points after 23 matches.

"We didn't want to sit back, we wanted to attack and helped ourselves in scoring those two goals in the first half. It gave us confidence and the belief that we can win this game. Our emphasis at half-time was that the first five minutes were going to be important. We didn't want concede in the first five minutes. To score the goal in the first five minutes was huge for us," Prince explained.

Ubuntu have a good chance of following in the footsteps of the likes of Mpumalanga Black Aces, University of Pretoria and Black Leopards who all reached the final of the Nedbank Cup while campaigning in the NFD.

