Department of Political Sciences Internship Programme 2017

The Department of Political Sciences is pleased to announce the creation of an Internship Programme in 2017. This internship is geared at providing an opportunity for students within the Department, to assist with maintaining, editing and publishing material onto the Department's newly created social media platforms. It will also be a platform to develop and hone in critical skills that can be used in future career endeavours. Please note that this is an unpaid, volunteer position. Students will be expected to put in 3 hours a week assisting with the above mentioned tasks, as well as other additional tasks.

There are three slots available and applications are open to second year, third year and honours students. At the end of the internship, students will receive a certificate of acknowledgement from the Department, which can then be used to augment your curriculum vitae. Please send in your applications to Ms Mlambo (Mellissa.Mlambo@up.ac.za). Below are further details about the programme.

Duration: 1 March – 30 November 2017

Number of Positions: 3

Eligible Candidates: Registered students within the Department of Political Sciences

Application Deadline: Tuesday, 21 February 2017
