

Try to understand

By Ronel Bekker (BA Law)

From border to border it may vary
It can be explained with a tad of effort
The understanding is sought by many
And only understood by few
It is not difficult only misjudged

It is not complicated and miserable
But a combination of common things
And a few unfamiliar words
Thrown together to form a mighty article

It builds the way we live
A written, spoken and practiced monitor
Forming a structure, that guides us
And the world around

It forms a way of living
A way of thinking
A way of being and understanding...
