STUDENT ADMINISTRATION

Slabbert, E.M.	Executive Head
---------------------	----------------

GENERAL INFORMATION

Admission/readmission

Any person who wishes to register at the University for the first time, or after an interruption of studies, should apply or reapply for admission. Application for admission to the LLB programme closes on 30 June.

Selection

A selection procedure takes place prior to admission to any degree programme in this Faculty.

Statement of symbols

When registering at this University for the first time, a candidate has to submit a record of symbols obtained for each subject in the grade 12 examination.

National Senior Certificate

All undergraduate candidates who enrol at the University of Pretoria for the first time, must show their original National Senior Certificate at the Student Administration of their faculty before the end of October.

Language of tuition

In conducting its general business, the University uses two official languages, namely Afrikaans and English.

In formal education, the language of tuition is either Afrikaans or English or both languages, taking the demand as well as academic justification and economic viability into consideration. However, it remains the student's responsibility to determine in which language a module and any further level of that module is presented. This information is published annually in the Timetable. The University reserves the right to change the language of tuition on short notice, depending on the size of the groups and the availability of lecturers. In respect of administrative and other services, a student may choose whether the University should communicate with him or her in Afrikaans or English.

Bursaries and loans

Particulars of bursaries and loans are available on request from the Section: Study Financing, University of Pretoria, 0002.

Residence accommodation

Applications for accommodation in university residences for a particular year can be submitted as from 1 March of the preceding year. Applications will be considered as long as vacancies exist, and prospective students are advised to apply well in advance. Please note that admission to the University does not automatically mean that lodging will also be available.

Welcoming day, registration and start of the academic year

Details of the welcoming day to which all parents are cordially invited, and the subsequent programme for registration and start of the academic year during which all new first-year students must be present, are obtainable from the Director: Student Affairs.

Prescribed books

Lists of prescribed books are not available. The relevant lecturers will supply information regarding prescribed books to students at the commencement of lectures.

Amendments of regulations and fees

The University retains the right to amend the regulations and to change programme/module fees without prior notification.

Please note: The fees advertised and thus levied in respect of a module or study programme presentation represents a combination of the costs associated with the formal services rendered (for example lectures, practicals, access to laboratories, consumables used in laboratories, etc) as well as associated indirect overheads such as the provision of library and recreation facilities, security and cleaning services, electricity and water supply, etc. Therefore the fees in respect of a module or study programme presentation cannot simply be reconciled with the visible services that are rendered in respect of such module or study programme.

Cancellation of modules

The cut-off date for cancellation of modules in the first and second semesters will be communicated to students by means of notices on the notice boards and announcements in the classes as well as in the timetable book. Students will not be allowed to cancel any module at a later date and lecturers/administrative staff will not supply any letters in this regard after the deadline.

Leave of absence

If it is impossible for a registered student at the University of Pretoria to continue with his/her studies/research in a specific year, but he/she intends to continue in the following year, the student must apply in writing to the dean of the relevant faculty for leave of absence. The application must include: full names, student number, address, reasons and period for leave of absence, for example the whole year, first semester (January to June) or second semester (July to December), name of supervisor (where applicable), and the student's intentions for the period after his/her leave of absence. However, in accordance with the policy of the University of Pretoria, leave of absence is not granted for more than two years. Any outstanding fees should be paid in full upon the student's return from his/her leave of absence.

Definition of terms

Familiarise yourself with the following terms. They are used generally in all faculties.

academic year: the duration of the academic year as determined by the University Council core module: a module that is essential for a particular programme credits: a value unit (credit) accredited to every module and which represents the complexity of and amount of work needed for the module; one credit represents 10 notional/learning hours curriculum: a series of modules grouped together from different subjects over a specified period of time and in a certain sequence according to the regulations elective module: a module that forms part of a programme and which can be selected on an elective basis, with the proviso that enough credits are obtained at the specific year level, as required by the relevant degree or diploma examination mark: the mark awarded to a student in a module on the basis of an examination in a paper/papers, including practical and clinical examinations, where applicable extended (study) programme: a study programme for a degree or diploma which, in accordance with the regulations, is taken over a longer period than the normal minimum duration of the degree and diploma final mark: the mark calculated on the basis of the semester/year mark and the examination mark awarded to a student in a module, using a formula which is determined from time to time by means of regulations for every module with the proviso that should no semester/year mark be required in a module, the examination mark serves as the final mark fundamental module: a module that serves as the academic basis of the learning activities for a particular programme grade point average based on module credits: an average mark that is calculated by multiplying the final mark achieved in a module with the credit value of that module and then dividing the sum of these values by the total of the credit values of all the modules for which a student was enrolled. The result of these calculations is a weighted average based on module credits.

GS: a combined mark (semester/year mark plus examination mark) of at least 40% required for admission to a specific prescribed module learning hours: the notional number of hours a student should spend to master the learning content of a particular module or programme. The total number of learning hours for a module consists of the time needed for lectures, practicals, self-study and any other activity required by the training programme. Learning hours for modules are calculated on the basis of 40 working hours per week x 28 weeks = 1 120 + 80 additional hours for evaluation = 1 200. For undergraduate modules, the total number of learning hours per module is calculated using the formula: number of credits (per module) x 10.

level (or year level): this is an indication of the complexity of a module (eg first, second or further level), and also implies a particular credit value. The first digit of the module code indicates the (year) level (thus ADR 310 is a module in the discipline of administrative law at level three).

module: an independent, defined learning unit, designed to result in a specific set of learning outcomes, and which is a component of a programme.

coordinator: the individual responsible for organising, compiling and arranging the teaching of/and guidance with a particular programme regulation for admission: a regulation compiled by the Dean concerning the admission of students to the faculty and which includes a provision regarding the selection process semester/year mark: the mark awarded to a student on the basis of tests, class work, practical work or any other work which was done in a module subject: a demarcated field of study of which one or more modules may be chosen for a degree syllabus: the division of the study material for a specific module year module: a module that extends over one year (two semesters)

REGULATIONS IN THE FACULTY OF LAW

The rules for the degrees published here are subject to change and may be amended prior to the commencement of the academic year in 2013.

1. Admission to undergraduate study

1.1 Admission requirements for candidates with a National Senior Certificate (NSC)

To be able to gain access to a faculty and specific programmes, prospective students require the appropriate combinations of recognised NSC subjects as well as certain levels of achievement in the said subjects. In this regard the determination of an admission point score is explained and a summary of the faculty-specific requirements, ie the Admission Point Score (APS) per programme and the specific subjects required per programme is provided.

Determination of the Admission Point Score (APS)

The calculation is based on a candidate's achievement in six 20-credit recognised subjects by using the NSC ratings, which is the "1 to 7 scale of achievement for each subject". Thus, the highest APS that can be achieved is 42.

Life Orientation is excluded from the calculation determining the APS required for admission.

Rating code	Rating	Marks %
7	Outstanding achievement	80-100%
6	Meritorious achievement	70-79%
5	Substantial achievement	60-69%
4	Adequate achievement	50-59%
3	Moderate achievement	40-49%
2	Elementary achievement	30-39%
1	Not achieved	0-29%

Provisional admission is based on the results obtained in the final grade 11 examination. Final admission is based on grade 12 results. Please note: The final grade 12 results will be the determining factor with regard to admission.

Alternative admission channels:

Candidates with an APS lower than required could be considered for admission to a faculty if they meet the additional assessment criteria specified by a faculty from time to time and if places are available. Preference will, however, be given to students who comply with the regular admission requirements of a faculty.

1.2 Specific requirements for the Faculty of Law for candidates with an NSC

- (i) A valid National Senior Certificate with admission for degree purposes.
- (ii) The minimum subject and level requirements as indicated in the table on the next page.

Degree	APS	Group A		Group B
		Two languages	Mathematics or Mathematical Literacy	3 other subjects
LLB	Candidates with an APS of 38 or higher will, on receipt of their applications, be accepted on a continuous basis until 30 June. After 30 June, the remaining spaces in the LLB programme will be filled by candidates with an APS of 32-37 by means of a selection process.	Any two languages, of which one language must be Afrikaans or English	Mathematics or Mathematical Literacy	Any three subjects

Note:

- The applications of candidates whose grade 11 marks do not meet the admission requirements, but who comply with the above requirements in the grade 12 examinations, will be reconsidered on request, based on their results in the Institutional Proficiency Test and only if there are places available in the Faculty, and on condition that the candidates applied for admission to LLB studies prior to 30 June of the previous year.
- Candidates, who are admitted provisionally on the basis of their grade 11 results, retain their admission after sitting for the grade 12 examinations, only if they obtain an NSC with admission for degree purposes and comply with all of the above requirements.

1.3 The Senate may limit the number of students allowed to register for a specific field of study in which case the Dean concerned may, at his/her own discretion, select from the students who qualify for admission those who may be admitted. Students who take a module offered by another faculty, must familiarise themselves with the requirements for admission to the module in question as well as the regulations governing admission to the module concerned, subminima in examinations, supplementary examinations, etc.

1.4 The following persons may also be considered for admission:

- (i) A candidate who is in possession of a certificate that is deemed by the University to be equivalent to the required National Senior Certificate with admission for degree purposes.
- (ii) A candidate who is a graduate from another tertiary institution or has been granted the status of a graduate of such an institution.
- (iii) A candidate who is a graduate from another faculty at this University.

Note: A conditional exemption certificate does not grant admission to LLB study. Prospective students are requested to contact the Faculty for more information regarding the admission requirements pertaining to the abovementioned categories.

2. Academic information management

The module AIM 101 Academic information management (or AIM 111 and 121), is compulsory for all first-year students of the Faculty of Law.

3. Registration for a particular year of study

At the beginning of an academic year, students register for all the modules they intend taking in that particular year (whether these be first-semester, second-semester or year modules).

Changes to the chosen study programme may be made at the beginning of the second semester with the Dean's approval. Students may also only register for modules that do not clash with regard to the lecture, test and examination timetables. Application for re-registration can be refused on the grounds of poor academic performance in the previous year.

4. Credits for unregistered students

There are students who attend lectures, write tests and examinations and in this manner earn "marks", but have either not registered for modules or have not registered as students at all. These marks will not be communicated to any student before he/she has provided proof of registration.

Students cannot obtain any credits in a specific academic year for a module "passed" in this manner during a previous academic year and for which they were not registered. This arrangement applies even where students are prepared to pay the tuition fees.

5. Exemption/credits for modules passed at other institutions

Students must apply on the prescribed form that is only available at the Student Administration office. The complete syllabus of the module concerned must accompany the application.

Students transferring from another university must complete at least half (50%) of the modules needed for the LLB degree at this University and must be a registered student of this University for at least two years.

6. Examination policy

6.1 General

- The examinations in first-semester modules take place in May/June, while examinations in second-semester modules take place in October/November. Each student has the responsibility to ascertain when modules will be written according to the official examination timetable.
- The use of correction fluid such as Tipp-Ex in tests, examinations and assignments is prohibited.
- No cell phones or any other electronic means of communication are allowed in test or examination venues.

6.2 Examination admission and pass requirements

A semester mark of at least 40% is required in order to be admitted to the examination in any module, with the exception of first-semester modules at 100 level for which the minimum requirement is 30%.

A final mark of at least 50% is required to pass. The final mark is the average mark of the semester and the examination mark but a subminimum of 40% is required in the examination in each module. Should the student fail to achieve the required subminimum, the lecturer could grant a supplementary examination, provided that the final mark is at least 40%.

The pass mark for essays, seminars, etc is at least 50%. The stipulations of G.60.4.d(vii) regarding requirements for dissertations, apply mutatis mutandis to essays.

6.3 Ancillary examinations

After completion of an examination and before the examination results are released, the examiners may summon a student for an ancillary examination on particular aspects of the work of that module.

6.4 Re-marking of examination papers (also consult General Regulation G.14)

After an examination, departments provide feedback to students about the framework that was used by the examiners during the examination. The way in which feedback is given, is determined by the head of the department. Students may apply for re-marking of an examination paper after perusal of such paper within 14 calendar days after commencement of lectures in the next semester. The prescribed fee has to be paid. The paper will then be re-marked by an examiner appointed by the head of the department concerned. If the supplementary examination in the relevant module has already been written by the time that the result of the re-mark becomes available, a student will not be granted a supplementary examination based on the results of the re-mark.

6.5 Supplementary examinations

- (i) Supplementary examinations in first-semester modules take place after the May/June examinations, while those in second-semester modules take place after the October/November examinations.
- (ii) To pass a supplementary examination, a student must obtain a minimum of 50% in the supplementary examination – the semester mark does not count.
- (iii) The highest final mark a student can obtain in a supplementary examination is 50%.

All students with a final mark of 40%-49% will qualify to write the supplementary examination. If a student does not write the supplementary examination on the scheduled day, there will not be any later opportunity for a rewrite.

6.6 Aegrotat/extraordinary examinations

Students who do not write their examinations on the scheduled day, may apply for an aegrotat/extraordinary examination at the Student Administration office. Each request is referred to the Dean in consultation with the Student Affairs Committee for a decision. Lecturers are not allowed to grant any permission for this category of examination. It is the responsibility of the student to ascertain whether his/her request has been successful. If permission has been granted, the student must write the aegrotat/extraordinary examination during the supplementary examination. Such a student will not qualify for a further supplementary examination.

Application for the above examination must be handed in at the Student Administration office together with a valid medical certificate not later than three working days after the module should have been written. The worn excuses of having overslept or read the timetable incorrectly will not be accepted.

A student who has been granted permission to write an aegrotat/extraordinary examination and who then fails to write the examination will not qualify to submit any such application at a later stage.

A medical certificate will not be accepted where it states that a student appeared ill or declared him-/herself unfit to write the examination.

A medical certificate will not be accepted if it does not contain the physical address and telephone number of the doctor/medical practice.

Where in the course of his/her studies at the University of Pretoria a student applies for an extraordinary examination in a law module for the fifth (or further) time, that student may be requested to appear before the Student Affairs Committee of the Faculty to substantiate why he/she should be allowed to write another extraordinary examination.

In cases where a reason other than sickness is relied upon, the student must submit an affidavit that reflects the reason for his/her absence from the examination. Further evidentiary documents or supporting affidavits from persons who may be able to give evidence regarding the situation must also be submitted. In the event of a funeral, a copy of the death certificate of the deceased or other substantiating evidence is required together with an explanation of the relationship between the student and the deceased.

6.7 Special examinations

A final-year student who has complied with all the requirements for the LLB degree, with the exception of a maximum of four semester modules, may be admitted to a special examination in January of the following year. The applicable fee must be paid before sitting for the examination. Should the student fail the module(s), the particular module(s) must be repeated in full.

For all four (or less) of these modules:

- (a) A final mark of at least 40% must have been obtained or the student should have been admitted to the supplementary examination;
- (b) The requirement in (a) must have been met in the final year of registration.

However, if a student has a single semester module outstanding to complete the LLB degree, she/he will be allowed to write the January special examination if she/he had at any time during her/his studies obtained at least examination entrance for that outstanding module.

6.8 Class attendance

Class attendance in all law modules and for the full duration of the LLB programme is compulsory for all students. The course coordinator of a particular law module must publish the attendance requirements of that module in the study guide and must set out how class attendance will be monitored.

A student may be refused admission to the examination in a particular law module if he/she failed to fulfil the published attendance requirements in that module.

7. Test policy

7.1 Semester tests

- There will be at least two evaluation opportunities per semester or year module in the first three years of the LLB programme and at least one evaluation opportunity per semester for the final-year semester or year modules.

Exceptions:

- Modules in which the Faculty has given permission in advance that the semester mark may be calculated in another manner.
- Where a student is only taking an aegrotat or an extraordinary test as described hereunder.
- The dates of official semester tests may only be changed with the permission of all members of a class group present during a scheduled lecture. If such a change of schedule occurs, the onus is on each student to find out about it. Absence from the class in which such arrangements were made will not serve as an excuse.
- Students are entitled to perusal of tests scripts but not to a re-mark by either the lecturer or an external examiner.

7.2 Aegrotat tests

- There is only one aegrotat or an extraordinary test opportunity and this takes place at the end of the semester. Students must obtain the details from the lecturer. The test will cover all the work completed up to the date of the test, unless the lecturer concerned, in consultation with the Head of Department, indicates otherwise. There are no special provisions to supplement marks where an evaluation opportunity takes the form of an assignment or a series of class tests.
- A student who is unable to write an official semester test on the scheduled date or at the scheduled time, must apply in writing for an aegrotat or extraordinary test.
- Application must be made in writing before the date of the test to the lecturer responsible for the administration of the module concerned or at the departmental secretary. Where this is not possible, the application must be made within three working days after the date of the test.
- In the case of a student being required to write two semester tests that are scheduled to take place on the same day and time, the student must write the scheduled semester test in the module that he/she is repeating, and the extraordinary test in the module that he/she is not repeating.
- In the case of illness, a doctor who treated the student must certify on a medical certificate that the particular student was, in the doctor's opinion, not in a fit state to prepare for or to sit for the test as a result of ill health. A medical certificate indicating that the student was, according to his/her own opinion, unfit to prepare for or to sit for the test is unacceptable.
- A medical certificate will not be accepted if it does not contain the physical address, telephone number and the practice number of the doctor/medical practice.
- In cases where a reason other than sickness is relied upon, the student must submit an affidavit that reflects the reason for his/her absence from the test. Further evidentiary documents or supporting affidavits from persons who may be able to give evidence regarding the situation must also be submitted. In the event of a funeral, a copy of the death certificate of the deceased or other substantiating evidence is required together with an explanation of the relationship between the student and the deceased.
The worn excuses of having overslept or read the timetable incorrectly will not be accepted.
- Students must confirm with the lecturer that an aegrotat or an extraordinary test has been granted. A student, who cannot get hold of the lecturer in person, must preferably hand the documentation to the relevant departmental secretary.

- A record is kept of every application for an aegrotat or an extraordinary test. This information may later be disclosed to prospective employers who seek letters of reference from the Faculty.
- A student who has been granted permission to write an aegrotat or an extraordinary test and who then fails to write the test, will not qualify for any such test at a later stage.
- Where a student wishes write two or more aegrotat/extraordinary tests that are scheduled to take place on the same day and time, the student must apply in writing to the Student Affairs Committee to be allowed to write aegrotat/extraordinary tests in all relevant modules. The Student Affairs Committee must consider the application and may grant or deny the application to write one or more aerostats/extraordinary tests. If the application to write all relevant aegrotat/extraordinary tests is granted, the Committee must rule on how the clash is to be resolved.

8. Releasing of test and examination marks

- Lecturers will advise students where test scripts will be made available. The lecturer will give the students feedback on semester tests, either by way of a written memorandum or a class discussion. Each department will also make known to students the process by which changes to marks, etc will be handled in that department.
- Final marks will be published by Student Administration. Lecturers will advise students in advance of the date on which perusal of examination papers will take place. At such a perusal session there will be a written memorandum or the lecturer must otherwise, by a method that he/she shall determine, give the students feedback on the paper. Students who are unable to attend the official perusal session may apply to the lecturer, in the same manner as for aegrotat and extraordinary tests, for an opportunity to see the examination script. No lecturer is under any obligation to grant any student such a perusal opportunity more than two weeks after the commencement of the following semester.
- Lecturers are entitled to destroy examination scripts one year after the completion of the relevant examination session.

9. Handling of problems and consulting hours of the Dean and lecturers

- Students who have a problem must first determine whether the problem relates to their registration with the University or to the module. In both instances the Student Administration should be consulted first.
- A problem regarding the content of a particular module must first be taken up with the specific lecturer responsible for the module. If the student cannot be assisted with his/her problem at this level, he/she must consult with the relevant head of department and afterwards with the Dean, if necessary.
- Lecturers in a specific department work under the guidance of a head of department. Lecturers or the head of the department can be consulted during their consulting hours or otherwise, by appointment. If a lecturer must be consulted by appointment, the appointment must be arranged with the relevant lecturer or the departmental secretary.
- Students may consult the Dean by making an appointment, in advance, with the Dean's secretary.

10. Testimonials required for good conduct

Students guilty of dishonest conduct are charged with misconduct. If the student is found guilty, disciplinary steps are taken, of which suspension from the university is one possibility. Dishonest conduct includes: copying of work during tests or examinations; copying of assignments/plagiarism; the illegal use of notes during tests and examinations; the submission of forged medical certificates or false affidavits.

Prospective law students must note that the Law Society requires every prospective candidate attorney who applies for clerkship to submit a testimonial to satisfy the Law Society that he/she is fit and proper to do so. The testimonial should disclose any previous criminal convictions or disciplinary steps taken against the applicant. In such instances a decision will be taken by the Law Society and it is possible that the application can be refused.

DEGREES CONFERRED IN THE FACULTY OF LAW

The following degrees are awarded in the Faculty (minimum duration of study is indicated in brackets):

- (a) Bachelor of Laws – LLB (4 years)
- (b) Master of Laws – LLM Coursework [minimum of 2 semesters (1 year), maximum of 8 semesters (4 years)]
LLM Research [minimum of 2 semesters (1 year), maximum of 8 semesters (4 years)]
- (c) Master of Philosophy – MPhil Coursework (1 or 2 years)
- (d) Doctor of Laws – LLD [minimum of 4 semesters (2 years), maximum of 8 semesters (4 years)]

The Dean has the authority to decide about all matters that are not covered by the general or faculty regulations.

(Note: It is the sole responsibility of each student to ascertain whether he/she has all the necessary modules to comply with all the requirements for the degree.)

Undergraduate studies

General Regulations G.1 to G.15 are applicable to a bachelor's degree.

Bachelor of Laws [LLB] (Code 04130007)

The LLB is the first professional qualification for legal practitioners and provides qualifiers with the necessary theoretical knowledge and practical skills to gain entry into the formal legal profession (eg attorneys/advocates), or to follow other careers in law.

(a) Duration

A minimum of four years.

(b) Admission requirements

A National Senior Certificate with admission for degree purposes and an APS as determined by the Faculty.

(c) Repeating of modules and maximum number of modules per year

- Students who fail modules must repeat the modules in the following year.
- Students will, however, not be allowed to take more than ten modules per semester. (This will mean that in certain instances students will not be allowed to take all the modules required for a specific year as the outstanding modules must first be repeated and passed.) The Dean may, however, exercise discretion to grant exemption from this provision.
- It is the student's responsibility to choose modules that will not lead to class, test or examination timetable clashes.

(d) Credit for modules

Students transferring from another university can only obtain credit for at the most 50% of the modules needed for the degree and must complete at least 50% of the modules at the University of Pretoria.

(e) Promotion requirements

(According to Regulation G.3 the Faculty Board may set promotion requirements which students must adhere to before they will be promoted.)

- A
1. A student must pass at least 8 semester modules in order to be promoted to the next year of study.
 2. Students who passed 4 to 7 semester modules may reregister but will not be promoted to the next year of study.
 3. A student who passed less than 4 semester modules will not be readmitted to the Faculty of Law. A student, who has forfeited readmission to the Faculty, may apply in writing to the Admissions Committee of the Faculty for conditional readmission to the Faculty – with the proviso that the Admissions Committee may stipulate further requirements for progress. A student's application for conditional readmission to the Faculty may be refused.
 4. A student who has been conditionally readmitted to the Faculty will have his/her studies monitored after the first-semester examination in order to determine whether such student has met the set conditions.
- B
1. Reregistration will only be permitted if a student is capable of completing the degree in the prescribed minimum period of 4 years plus a further 2 years according to the opinion of the Admissions Committee.

(f) Degree with distinction

For the degree to be awarded with distinction, a student must obtain a grade point average (ie in accordance with the credit value of each module) of at least 75% in respect of all the modules prescribed for the third and fourth years of the LLB degree, completed at this University. The grade point average is calculated as follows: The final mark obtained for each third- and fourth-year module prescribed for the LLB degree, including the electives, is multiplied by the credit value of that particular module. The sum of these values are added together and divided by the total of the credit values of all prescribed third- and fourth-year LLB modules. The average so calculated is not rounded off. A student who failed a third- or fourth-year LLB module, including any of the electives, may not be awarded the degree with distinction.

(g) Dean's merit list

The Student Administration office publishes the Dean's merit list by March of every calendar year. The list contains the student numbers, in chronological sequence, of those students who achieved a weighted average (ie in accordance with the credit value of each module) of at least 75% in the preceding calendar year.

The weighted average is calculated as follows: The final mark obtained for each module for which the student registered in the preceding calendar year is multiplied by the credit value for that particular module. The sum of the values so obtained for each module are added together and divided by the total of the credit values of all modules for which the student registered in the preceding calendar year. The average so calculated is not rounded off.

A student who failed module(s) or who failed to gain entrance to the exam in the module(s) in a given calendar year may not appear on the Dean's merit list for that calendar year. A student who registered for less than ten modules in a calendar year may not appear on the Dean's merit list for that calendar year. Modules passed at other universities are not considered in calculating the weighted average.

(h) Composition of the curriculum

(Abbreviations: lpw = lectures per week tpw = tutorials per week
spw = seminars per week dpw = discussion classes per week)

In terms of the National Qualifications Framework (NQF), which is endorsed by the Faculty, a specific number of credits are allocated to each module.

Total number of credits: 496 (see table below for credit distribution)

Level	Year 1	Year 2	Year 3	Year 4

*The Dean determines which elective modules will be presented each year, taking into consideration the availability of lecturing personnel, space and financial implications and/or other circumstances. The Dean may determine the maximum number of registrations for a specific elective module. The Dean may, on recommendation of the relevant head of department, determine that a particular fourth-year elective module will not be offered where on the first day of lectures nine or fewer students are registered for the module.

The Dean has the discretion to credit any other legal module of equal standard passed at another institution as an elective.

Practical law 400

- (i) The number of students who may be admitted to the module Practical law (PRR 400) is predetermined by the Dean, in consultation with the Head of the Department of Procedural Law.
- (ii) Prospective students must apply for admission to the module.
- (iii) Should more students apply for admission to the module than can be accepted, a selection process will take place on the basis of a student's previous performance and an interview with the Director of the Law Clinic.
- (iv) Students are promoted on the basis of tests, satisfactory execution of assignments, sessions in the Law Clinic and an oral examination.

(v) Practical law (PRR 400) counts 20 credits and counts as two electives.

◆ Only applicable to exchange students

Transitional measures for students who registered for the LLB for the first time prior to 2013:

1. Students who registered for the LLB for the first time prior to 2013 will be allowed to register for the modules as set out in the relevant (pre-2013) yearbook. Yearbooks available at <http://web.up.ac.za/default.asp?ipkCategoryID=1797>
2. A student must pass at least 8 semester modules in order to be promoted to the next year of study. First-year students who passed 4 to 7 semester modules may reregister but will not be promoted to the next year of study and therefore will have to register for the 2013 curriculum. The same will apply mutatis mutandis for second-, third- and fourth-year students in 2013 and beyond. (General Regulation G.5.2.c read with paragraph (e), page 17, 2013 Faculty of Law yearbook.)
3. A student who passed less than 4 semester modules will not be readmitted to the Faculty of Law. A student who has forfeited readmission to the Faculty, may apply in writing to the Admissions Committee of the Faculty for conditional readmission to the Faculty – with the proviso that the Admissions Committee may stipulate further requirements for progress. A student's application for conditional readmission to the Faculty may be refused. A student who has been conditionally readmitted to the Faculty will have to register for the 2013 curriculum and his/her studies will be monitored after the first-semester examination in order to determine whether such student has met the set conditions.
4. The table below sets out the equivalent module(s) in the revised curriculum. Students who registered for the LLB for the first time prior to 2013 register for the "old" first-year module but attend the classes of the "new" module. The module coordinators for each of the "new" modules will devise detailed transitional arrangements, and publish these arrangements in the study guides, so that "old" students only attend lectures and tutorials dealing with the "old" curriculum, and so that "old" students are only assessed on the "old" curriculum. (Pre-2013 LLB students register for the module in the left-hand column and attend the relevant classes and perform the relevant assessment tasks for the modules in the right-hand column. The module coordinators must ensure that pre-2013 students attend the classes and perform the assessment tasks that correspond with the course content of the pre-2013 modules). Repeating students who fail "old" first-year modules again in 2013 must still register for the "old" module in 2014 but will be expected to complete the content of the "new" module. Repeating students who fail "old" second- to fourth-year modules again in 2014 must still register for the "old" module in 2015 but will be expected to complete the content of the "new" module.

NB The new module codes for 2nd-, 3rd- and 4th-year modules commence in 2014.

In terms of the Faculty of Law Summer/Winter School policy a student may register for a maximum of two modules per Summer/Winter School. If a student fails more than two first-year modules and wishes to enrol for two Summer/Winter School modules, the modules offered by the Department of Jurisprudence must be given preference, as the changes to the content of these modules in the revised curriculum are more far-reaching than those for Family Law (FMR).

Students obtain entrance to the Summer/Winter School by having previously acquired a semester mark in the module, except for BCom (Law) students who may register for HVR 110 for the Summer School without having acquired a semester mark in HVR 110 previously.

Summer and Winter Schools will be offered depending on the availability of funds.

The Dean of the Faculty of Law has the discretion to make an equitable and practical ruling where an unforeseen situation arises in the application of the transitional arrangements or where a particular issue has not explicitly been set out in the transitional arrangements.

An LLB student must pass at least 8 semester modules in order to be promoted to the next year of study. First-year LLB students who passed 4 to 7 semester modules in 2012 may reregister in 2013 but will not be promoted to the next year of study and therefore will have to register for the 2013 curriculum.

First-year BCom (Law) students who pass fewer than 4 core semester modules or fewer than 2 core year modules in 2012 and who are not academically excluded, will be registered for the new BCom (Law) curriculum in 2013.

First-year BA (Law) students who obtain fewer than 60 credits in 2012 and who are not academically excluded, will be registered for the new BA (Law) curriculum in 2013.

First-year BA (Law) students (2012) who are conditionally readmitted to the Faculty of Humanities by the Appeals Committee of Senate, will be registered for the new BA (Law) curriculum.

Postgraduate studies

Students have to complete their postgraduate studies within two years after first registration for the degree. The Dean, on the recommendation of the head of the relevant department, may in exceptional circumstances grant approval for up to four years after first registration and with the proviso that the faculty's Admissions Committee may stipulate other requirements for progress or readmission.

Master of Laws [LLM]: Coursework

Also consult General Regulations G.30 to G.62 as well as the LLM Policy Document of the Faculty.

GENERAL REGULATIONS

(a) Examinations and supplementary examinations

In the event of having failed all modules during a particular year of study, a student will only be allowed to continue with his/her studies with the Dean's consent.

Although no supplementary examination will be granted with regard to LLM modules, the General Regulations (Regulation G.12.3 and G.12.6) apply with regard to special and ancillary examinations.

(b) Language policy

The medium of instruction will be English. However, should circumstances allow it, an LLM module may be presented in Afrikaans. The Dean, in consultation with the relevant head of department, determines the language policy.

(c) Period of registration

At the commencement of a particular module students should be registered for that module and attend the lectures. Alternatively, the permission of the programme coordinator or head of the department should be obtained before a student may be allowed to follow a specific module in a another year of study.

(d) Limiting of modules on offer in a particular academic year and availability to foreign students

The Dean determines which modules will be presented each year, taking into consideration the availability of lecturing personnel, space and financial implications and/or other circumstances. The Dean may, on recommendation of the relevant head of department, determine the maximum number of registrations for a specific elective module in terms of the guidelines referred to in paragraph (a) under "Specific Regulations" that a particular LLM module will not be offered where on the first day of lectures four or fewer students are registered for such module.

In the case of foreign students additional requirements may be set by the Dean and the modules available to such students may also be limited.

(e) Credit for modules completed at another institution

The Dean may, on the recommendation of the relevant head of department, credit a student for a maximum of two modules completed at another institution on condition that it complies with the requirements of this Faculty. Where such modules do not bear the same titles as modules offered at this Faculty, modules with substantially the same content as determined by the relevant head of department may be granted credit in their place, or where, in the absence of such closely related modules, modules that are still relevant within the broad ambit of a specific LLM degree may be granted credit under special codes for the purposes of such a degree. Additional requirements may also be set before any such module will be granted credit in order to ensure compliance with the requirements of this Faculty.

(f) Credit for non-legal components

In order to qualify for an LLM degree with non-legal components, the specific degree can at most include one non-legal module of the prescribed number of modules from a related field, and with the special permission from the Faculty Board.

Note that with regard to both (e) and (f) credit will not be given for modules which form part of another degree where the student has already complied with the requirements of such a degree. This rule is also applicable in instances where the student is currently also registered for another degree.

(g) Re-registration for modules

A student may not register more than twice for the same module. In order to pass a module the student must obtain a final mark of 50%.

(h) Mini-dissertation

The relevant head of department must recommend a supervisor and title for a mini-dissertation and these must be approved by the Postgraduate Committee. The mini-dissertation must be assessed and finalised as set out in the Faculty Board-approved LLM Policy Document of the Faculty.

Mini-dissertations, where required, must be submitted in the format determined by the supervisor and approved by the Postgraduate Committee. The supervisor may likewise and subject to the approval of the Postgraduate Committee also determine the research topic and the scope of the proposed research.

(i) Memorandum of Understanding (MoU)

A written agreement between the student and supervisor should be signed. The document serves as the basis for the interaction between the student and the supervisor. It indicates their individual roles, responsibilities and expectations and making it clear that they are entering into a binding undertaking with each other. The supervisor has the responsibility to ensure that the mini-dissertation is properly prepared by the student.

SPECIFIC REGULATIONS

(a) Requirement for admission and limitation of student numbers

In addition to an LLB, BProc or equivalent qualification from a foreign university that allows the applicant entrance to the formal legal profession, the following requirement is set for admission of a prospective student to the LLM Coursework programme:

A minimum average mark of 65% with respect to the prescribed final-year modules of the undergraduate programme.

Where an average of below 65% is achieved, the student may be admitted on recommendation of the relevant head of department after consultation with the programme coordinator and/or the course leader and consideration of other merits and/or an admission examination.

Foreign qualifications are subject to SAQA evaluation. (Some LLM coursework programmes or modules as indicated in the yearbook may only be available to students who hold a relevant South African legal qualification.)

Even though a student may comply with the above requirements, the Dean may, on the recommendation of the head of department presenting a specific degree or module, refuse to accept a prospective student for any LLM programme if such a student's performance in the chosen modules or field of study during undergraduate study was not satisfactory. Alternatively, the Dean could set additional requirements with a view to admission.

An admission examination could also be required in respect of a particular programme or module.

The Dean may on recommendation of the relevant head of a department limit the number of students to be allowed to register for any LLM programme. Where such limitation applies, prospective students must be informed about the limitation when they apply. Where the Dean allows such a limitation, the head of the department will, in consultation with the course leader, select students who otherwise comply with the admission requirements for an LLM coursework degree, according to the following guidelines:

1. Academic performance in the undergraduate degree and relevant undergraduate degree module/s.
2. Any academic qualifications other than the prescribed undergraduate degree.
3. Relevant practical experience and training.
4. Diversity.
5. Whether the relevant LLM is the applicant's first choice.
6. Where an admission examination is prescribed, the results of such examination may be considered in addition to the above criteria.

7. Date on which a complete application was received.*
 (Where applicants satisfy the criteria set out above, applicants will in general be accepted on a date-of-receipt order of preference.)

*Only complete applications will be considered. Incomplete applications will be set aside and will not be considered until a complete application is received.

(b) Duration

The duration of the programme will in general be four semesters (2 years) but may be completed within two semesters (1 year) where possible, subject to fulfilment of all the requirements for the degree and payment of the full amount prescribed for the LLM degree. The maximum duration is 4 years.

(c) Curriculum

- Three modules counting 30 credits each (at least one of these modules must be completed during the first year of registration).
- A module in research methodology (RHP 801) counting 5 credits (this module must be completed during the first year of registration).
- A research proposal (RHP 803) counting 5 credits. The student must submit the research proposal (RHP 803) to the supervisor not later than the end of the first semester of the second year of registration for the LLM degree, prior to commencing with the writing of the mini-dissertation. This period may be extended with the approval of the head of department.
- A mini-dissertation (MND 800) of 13 000-15 000 words inclusive of footnotes but excluding the list of contents and the bibliography. The examination copy of the mini-dissertation must be submitted to the Student Administration not later than the end of October for the April graduation ceremony and the end of May for the September graduation ceremony. After approval of the examination copy of the mini-dissertation, a final version must be submitted to Student Administration on or before 15 February for the April graduation ceremony and 15 July for the September graduation ceremony. This mini-dissertation must deal with the subject content of one of the modules or a combination of the modules registered for by the student for his/her LLM degree. Any request for an extension of the period for submission of the mini-dissertation may only be granted by the Dean on recommendation of the head of department.

(d) Degree with distinction

For the degree to be awarded with distinction a student must obtain an average of at least 75% for all the coursework modules together, as well as a minimum of 75% for the mini-dissertation. The modules must have been written for the first time.

Master of Laws [LLM]: Research

Total number of NQF credits: 200

Also consult General Regulations G.30 to G.41.

(a) Requirements for admission

Subject to the stipulations of General Regulations G.1.3, G.30 and G.62, a candidate for the LLM programme should be in possession of at least an LLB or a BProc degree or an equivalent degree from a foreign university that allows entrance to the formal legal profession.

Foreign qualifications are subject to SAQA evaluation.

A candidate will only be admitted to the LLM programme if he/she complies with the standard of competence in applicable subjects as determined by the head of department, also taking into account the candidate's academic record and any applicable experience.

A candidate will only be admitted to the LLM programme if the Faculty can provide a suitable supervisor in light of the applicant's preliminary research proposal.

(b) Registration and renewal of registration

If admitted, a student can register immediately for the LLM programme. The following two modules must be registered for and completed within one year of registration:

1. Research methodology (RHP 802) offered by the Faculty of Law.
(If the student can show sufficient evidence of competence in research skills the head of department, on recommendation of the supervisor, may exempt the student from this module.)
2. Research proposal and oral defence of the research proposal (RHP 804).
An oral defence of the research proposal including an assessment of the feasibility of the dissertation statement, research question or questions and argument to be developed in the LLM dissertation is required. A draft research proposal including a bibliography that covers the main fields to be covered by the study, the dissertation statement, research question or questions and argument must be sent to the examination panel three weeks prior to the oral defence. (Such a draft research proposal must first be approved by the supervisor.) The student must convince the adjudicating panel of the feasibility of the topic and his or her knowledge of the research subject and ability to conduct the research. Where required by the panel, the draft proposal must be further reworked in light of the comments at the oral defence and a final proposal submitted to the satisfaction of the supervisor before the student may embark on the writing of the dissertation. (No exemption can be granted from this requirement.)

A student who does not complete the abovementioned two modules within one year of registration may be excluded from the Faculty and if he/she seeks readmission to the Faculty, may submit a written request to the Dean that his/her application for readmission to the Faculty be considered in terms of the set procedure.

(c) Duration

The study extends over at least two semesters (1 year) or a maximum of 8 semesters (4 years) (subject to the General Regulations G.30-G.61).

(d) Dissertation

With regard to the abovementioned curriculum, the General Regulations. G.57-G.61 apply and the dissertation counts 100% for the final mark. The dissertation consists of 36 000-48 000 words inclusive of footnotes but excluding the list of contents and the bibliography. The dissertation must be accompanied by at least one draft article for publication in a recognised academic journal. The draft article should be based on the research that the student has conducted for the dissertation and be approved by the supervisor.

(e) Memorandum of Understanding (MoU)

A written agreement between the student and supervisor should be signed. The document serves as the basis for the interaction between the student and the supervisor. It indicates their individual roles, responsibilities and expectations and making it clear that they are entering into a binding undertaking with each other. The supervisor has the responsibility to ensure that the mini-dissertation is properly prepared by the student.

(f) Degree with distinction

For the degree to be awarded with distinction a student must obtain a minimum of 75% for the dissertation.

A Doctor of Laws [LLD]

Also consult General Regulations G.45-G.62.

Total number of NQF credits: 400

(a) Requirements for admission

Subject to the stipulations of General Regulation G.1.3, G.45 and G.62, a candidate for the LLD programme must be in possession of at least an LL.M degree, or an equivalent degree from a foreign university.

Foreign qualifications are subject to SAQA evaluation.

Faculty Board may grant exemption from the above conditions.

A candidate will only be admitted to the LLD programme if he/she complies with a standard of competence in applicable subjects as determined by the head of department, also taking into account the candidate's academic record and any applicable experience.

A candidate will only be admitted to the LLD programme if the Faculty can provide a suitable supervisor in light of the applicant's preliminary research proposal.

(b) Registration and renewal of registration

If admitted, a student can register immediately for the LLD programme. The following two modules must be registered for and completed within one year of registration:

1. Research methodology (RHP 902) offered by the Faculty of Law.
(If the student can show sufficient evidence of competence in research skills the head of department, on recommendation of the supervisor, may exempt the student from this module.)
2. Research proposal and oral defence of the research proposal (RHP 904).
An oral defence of the research proposal including an assessment of the feasibility of the thesis statement, research question or questions and argument to be developed in the LLD thesis is required. A draft research proposal including a bibliography that covers the main fields to be covered by the study, the thesis statement, research question or questions and argument must be sent to the examination panel three weeks prior to the oral defence. (Such a draft research proposal must first be approved by the supervisor.) The student must convince the adjudicating panel of the feasibility of the topic and his or her knowledge of the research subject and ability to conduct the research. Where required by the panel, the draft proposal must be further reworked in light of the comments at the oral defence and a final proposal submitted to the satisfaction of the supervisor before the student may embark on the writing of the thesis. (No exemption can be granted from this requirement).

A student who does not complete the abovementioned two modules within one year of registration may be excluded from the Faculty and if he/she seeks readmission to the Faculty, may submit a written request to the Dean that his/her application for readmission to the Faculty be considered in terms of the set procedure.

(c) Memorandum of Understanding (MoU)

A written agreement between the student and supervisor should be signed. The document serves as the basis for the interaction between the student and the supervisor. It indicates their individual roles, responsibilities and expectations and making it clear that they are entering into a binding undertaking with each other. The supervisor has the responsibility to ensure that the thesis is properly prepared by the student.

(d) Thesis

The LLD degree is conferred by virtue of a thesis, and an oral defence of the thesis. The topic of the thesis must be selected from the fields of study, and be approved by the Dean. (See G.57.4(h) and (i) for finalisation of the thesis.)

(e) Oral defence of the thesis

After receipt of the reports of the external examiners, the supervisor arranges an oral defence opportunity for the candidate chaired by the head of department, during which the candidate is required to do a presentation in defence of the thesis. (See G.60.4.(e)(ii)).

(f) Duration of the programme

The criterion for the award of the doctorate is original research. The degree will not be conferred until work equivalent to at least two years of study has been completed.

Period of presentation: Semester 2

Language of tuition: Both Afr and Eng

Credits: 10

Module content:

*For LLB

The objective of this service learning programme is to expose students to the context in which the law operates and where possible to render community service. Internships may be served at any institution where the student will gain valuable experience and exposure related to his/her studies. Criteria in regard to the kinds of institutions shall be set by the Faculty Board. Possible institutions include international organisations (such as the United Nations and the African Union), state institutions (such as Parliament, the Competition Tribunal and the Human Rights Commission), entrepreneurial organisations (such as the JSE), civil society organisations and NGOs. Law firms may be hosts to the extent that pro bono work is involved.

Students will be expected to serve a minimum of 120 hours at host institutions.

Before admission to this module the student must submit a working plan to the Dean for approval indicating the nature of the work to be undertaken as well as the number of hours that will be spent doing the work. The proposed working plan must be supported by the academic member of staff who will serve as the academic supervisor of the internship.

A co-supervisor at the institution where the student will be placed must be identified in the proposed working plan.

The student, academic supervisor and co-supervisor must each write a report at the completion of the internship.

The student delivers an oral presentation before a panel consisting of the Dean, academic supervisor and an external examiner during which the student defends his/her report. The panel awards a mark after considering the three written reports and the oral presentation.

SKY 410 Essay and seminar 410

Academic organisation: Jurisprudence

Contact time: 1 lecture + 3 seminars

Period of presentation: Semester 1

Prerequisite: RHP 320 (as from 2016)

Language of tuition: Both Afr and Eng

Credits: 15

Module content:

*For LLB

- (a) The essay deals with a subject from the field of law.
- (b) The supervisor advises final-year students of the date on which the subject of the essay must be submitted to him for approval.
- (c) The head of department responsible for the subject, or a lecturer designated by him/her, acts as project leader and as examiner: Provided that the head of department may appoint an external examiner should he/she deem it necessary.
- (d) Two typed, duplicated or printed copies of the essay of between 8 000 and 14 000 words (with an indication of the amount of words on the last page of the essay), must be submitted. The date when the essay must be submitted is the first Monday after the September/October recess.

Each lecturer supervises a maximum of 15 students annually. The topics chosen by these students must preferably be thematically linked. At the beginning of the year, all registered students as a group attend one compulsory lecture on the approach to and writing of an essay. Following this, each lecturer organises one seminar of two hours with his or her group of students, during which students submit the topics and basic structure of their essays.

After completion of the essays, a copy of each essay is made available to students. For this purpose, one copy must be handed in at the library, and the other at the supervisor. The lecturer then organises a further series of seminars, where each student presents his or her conclusions for the group to criticise. At these seminars, the lecturer also involves another faculty member or expert.

The evaluation is as follows:

Written document: 70%

Participation in seminar: 30%

Draft essay: 10%

Introduction to Philosophy

The two semester modules at first-year level introduce students to the four main subfields of Philosophy, namely epistemology and metaphysics, ethics and political philosophy. This module introduces students to two of these subfields. Students must contact the Department of Philosophy to ascertain which two subfields are covered in each semester as the choice may change from time to time due to availability of teaching staff. Students will become acquainted with the nature of philosophical reflection by exploring a number of classical philosophical themes in each subfield. Throughout the module there is an emphasis on developing those critical thinking, reading and writing skills that are required in Philosophy, while students become acquainted with the power of critique as critical judgment and discernment.
