General Regulations and Rules of the University of Pretoria and the Glossary of Terms.

General Rules

Use of cellular phones and other recording devices during lectures and practicals

The attention of students is drawn to the fact that cellular phones may not be used at all during lectures and practical sessions and must be switched off. Furthermore, students are prohibited from recording lectures without the permission of the lecturer concerned. However, in the case of students with special needs, prior arrangements should be made to obtain the necessary approval.
