- BCom (Accounting Sciences)

The BCom (Accounting Sciences) degree is a three-year programme that is followed by the one-year Postgraduate Diploma in Accounting Sciences (PGDAS), in order for graduates to comply with the education requirements for the Chartered Accountant qualification, CA(SA). Successful completion of these two study programmes will provide access to the Initial Test of Competence (ITC), which is the first of two professional exams set by the South African Institute of Chartered Accounting (SAICA). Thereafter, a three-year traineeship needs to be completed and the applicable professional qualifying examinations written during this time for eligibility to register as a CA(SA).

The BCom (Accounting Sciences) degree and the Postgraduate Diploma in Accounting Sciences are accredited by SAICA and form part of the requirements for training as a CA(SA), which is the highest professional designation in accounting in South Africa and enjoys international recognition. The undergraduate degree is also accredited by the Association of Chartered Certified Accountants (ACCA). Over and above the prestigious CA(SA) qualification, the 3-year BCom (Accounting Sciences) degree also provides access to the following BCom Honours degrees (subject to selection):

- BComHons (Financial Management)
- BComHons (Internal Auditing)
- BComHons (Taxation)

The characteristics of students who excel in this programme include:

- Ethical
- Critical thinker
- Detail oriented
- Interested in business
- Self-motivated

A qualified CA(SA) is able to fulfil business and finance roles in a variety of industries. They tend to specialise in auditing and assurance, tax, financial management, information technology, management accounting, forensic accounting and insolvency. There is also the possibility of working in academia, the public or private sector and nongovernmental organisations, to name a few. CAs(SA) also succeed in CEO, CFO, vice-president, chairperson and finance manager roles and can become entrepreneurs.
