- BAdmin Public Management and International Relations

The BAdmin (Public Management and International Relations) programme is directed towards the study of Public Administration to equip students for a career in the public sector.

The degree provides in-depth knowledge of certain administrative and management practices in the South African and international public sectors. It focuses on the three spheres of government, namely the local, provincial and national levels.

Some of the key aspects studied are public financial and human resources management, international administration and management, policy and organisation studies, ethics, project management, intergovernmental relations and administrative justice.

The BAdmin degree is the only programme in the Faculty of EMS that combines public sector management with specialisations such as politics and international relations.

The programme exposes students to the management environment in both the public and private sectors. It enhances students' understanding of what it means to be good and responsible citizens.

The ideal candidates should:

- Have the desire, commitment and dedication to serve their community, their city and/or their country
- Believe in and want to be part of the moral and legal obligation that the state has towards creating a better life for all

Our graduates are employed by:

Government departments, embassies, consulates, High Commissions, parastatals, non-governmental organisations, private sector companies that work extensively with government contracts.
