

Calling ALL UP STUDENTS & STAFF to participate in the Universal Declaration of Human Rights (UDHR)

MULTIMEDIA COMPETITION

Celebrating the 70th anniversary of the adoption of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights (UDHR), the Centre for Human Rights, Faculty of Law, University of Pretoria, is launching the UDHRat70 Multimedia Competition, with four creative categories, and a total amount of R32 000 in cash prizes.

The aim of the Competition is to contextualise the UDHR into a post-war, post-colonial and post-apartheid world and to demonstrate its relevance to our quest for peace, equality and dignity on a global scale, seventy years after its adoption.

4 CREATIVE CATEGORIES WITH A TOTAL OF 8 CASH PRIZES

The Centre for Human Rights invites all members of the UP community to submit a work that deals with any one of the 30 rights enshrined in the UDHR.

The Centre encourages the UP community to submit works that deal with issues that are personal to them and to look critically at the rights that have had a direct impact on their lives. UP members are encouraged to tell the story of who they are and where they are in the context of the rights enshrined in the UDHR.

For full details, resources, submission procedure and the rules of the UDHRat70 Multimedia competition, please visit the official UDHRat70 website: www.chr.up.ac.za/UDHRat70

ELIGIBILITY

This competition is open to all staff and students of the University of Pretoria excluding staff of the Centre for Human Rights (and their immediate family).

SUBMISSIONS

University of Pretoria staff and students are invited to think creatively and submit a visual or oral representation that captures one of the UDHR rights. Prizes will be awarded to the winner and runner-up in each category.

Winner per category: An amount of R5 000 in cash.

Runner-up per category: An amount of R3 000 in cash.

A total of 8 prizes will be awarded.

Shortlisted submissions will receive a special mention.
