

Intra-Africa Mobility for Training Agribusiness and Food Systems Scientists for African Agriculture (TAFSA)

Call for Credit Seeking Mobility, Cohort I
(Readvertised with deadline extended to July 31, 2024)

About TAFSA Program

Intra-Africa Mobility to Train Agribusiness and Food System Scientists for African Agriculture (TAFSA) is funded by the European Union (EU). The program is run by (five) 5 African Participating Universities namely, Eduardo Mondlane University (Mozambique); Gulu University (Uganda); Makerere University (Uganda); University of Abomey Calavi (Benin), and University of Pretoria (South Africa). The goal of TAFSA project is to enhance synergetic cooperation amongst selected Agricultural Universities in Africa. Specifically, the project aims at supporting these African universities with research and training of skilful and competent professionals to contribute to the improvement of food systems, and agribusiness to respond to challenges associated with food insecurity and malnutrition, poverty and unemployment.

Through students training, TAFSA project is expected to contribute to:

- Improving the skills and competencies of students to increase their employability;
- Improving the quality of higher education in Africa and its relevance to Africa's development vision; and
- Strengthening partnerships and research collaboration amongst African higher education institutions and research collaboration.

Target beneficiaries

Beneficiaries of TAFSA scholarship are categorised into two target groups (TGs).

- TG-I include students from TAFSA consortium Institutions; University of Abomey Calavi (Benin), University of Eduardo Mondlane (Mozambique), Makerere University or Gulu University (Uganda), and University of Pretoria (South Africa).
- To qualify for TG-I, an applicant must be either a former student (degree seeking) or current student (credit seeking) of a participating university.
- TG-II includes students from all other African countries, with priority being given to students from conflict-affected and disadvantaged countries, including Burundi, Cameroon, Liberia, Mali and Sierra Leone.
- Both TG-I and TG-II applicants are eligible to apply for either credit or degree seeking mobility.

Selection Criteria

For admission into the TAFSA Master's or PhD credit seeking programme, the applicant must be enrolled for a Master's or PhD degree programme from an accredited university within the fields of agriculture, agricultural economics, agribusiness, food science and technology, human nutrition and consumer science. Further details on entry requirements into a specific course for study can be found on the host institution website or from the TAFSA project website (<http://www.tafsa.org>). Applicants are not allowed to apply to more than one mobility programme. Details of the programmes for mobility and numbers are summarised in the program summary table on the last page of this advert notice. Additionally, applicants must be willing to study in an institution outside of their home country and must demonstrate proficiency in the language of instruction.

Selection for the credit seeking scholarship award

Selection of applicants will be carried out by a designated TAFSA selection committee. This committee will evaluate the eligibility of both TG-I and TG-II candidates based on TAFSA's selection criteria which include the student's academic profile, professional background, and motivation.

TAFSA selection criteria ensures equitable access and inclusion, and will give opportunity to participants from all backgrounds. Female candidates, candidates with disabilities, professional athletes, and candidates from disadvantaged backgrounds are highly encouraged to apply.

Eligibility for the TAFSA credit mobility will be assessed based on the following criteria:

- Proof that the applicant is from a accredited university;
- The applicant fulfils the Target Groups (TG) requirements;
- The application deadline is respected;
- The right application form is used;
- All required supporting documents are provided and are official and legible;
