

The Moshal Program is more than a higher education scholarship – they help you succeed at university and jumpstart your career.

Moshal provides financial support and also have a team of professionals that are dedicated to guiding students through the day-to-day life of university, and to ultimately finding valuable jobs in their chosen fields of study.

Degrees funded Accounting; Actuarial Science; Commerce; Computer Science; Data Science; Engineering; Information Technology; Medicine (MBCHB); Mathematics; Veterinary Science; Statistics.

Basic admission requirements Household income of up to R200 000 per year (before deductions) and 70% minimum for English, Maths, Physics/Accounting.

How to Apply:

Visit www.moshalprogram.org.za to find detailed information about the scholarship, application requirements, and the selection process.

Contact:

For any queries or assistance with the application process, please reach out to:
selection@moshalprogram.org