Curriculum Transformation 2024 Lecture Series

Reimagining curricula for a just university in a vibrant democracy

Wednesday, 8 May 2024
14:00 – 15:00

ONLINE EVENT

Prof Charles Maimela, Deputy Dean: Faculty of Law and Coordinator for the relaunch of UP’s Curriculum Transformation (CT) Drive, with the steering committee on CT, in collaboration with the Office of the DVC: Academic, Prof Loretta Feris, cordially invites you to the 2024 UP Curriculum Transformation Lecture Series.

The focus for the 2024 lecture series will be to evaluate the 2016 Curriculum Transformation Framework that was developed and adopted by the University. In light of the changes and developments in higher learning, it is crucial to evaluate and reassess this framework to ensure its relevance. This engagement will provide an opportunity for the University community to reflect on its effectiveness and strategise for the future. This is also one of the main tasks from the 2023 senate conference. To kick-start the lecture series, the Faculty of Humanities and the Faculty of Theology and Religion will share their experiences and recommendations for the framework of CT.

The lecture series will serve as a platform for open discussions, sharing of insights, and mapping the way forward towards a more responsive and dynamic curriculum that aligns with the demands of the education setting.
