

Japanese Language Course – Part 2

Presented by the Centre for Japanese Studies, University of Pretoria

3 March 2020 | Classes start from 18:00–20:00

From delicious sushi and tea, to the brave samurais and beautiful geishas. Whether you're looking to learn Japanese for business, travel or personal purposes our Japanese Courses will provide you with the knowledge and skills you need to communicate in this exciting language.

Enterprises University of Pretoria offers the Japanese Language Course in three parts so that you can either gain a basic understanding of the language, or continue learning to broaden your understanding of the language and culture.

For those with a basic understanding of Japanese this course will develop their ability and confidence in basic Japanese communication in everyday environments. The focus will be on the practical use of the language and delegates will learn more about both the traditional and contemporary aspects of the Japanese culture and society. Various materials (video, quiz etc.) and activities will be used throughout the course to introduce delegates to the important forms of the Japanese language and the difference between formal and informal ways of speech will be explained.
