NSFAS APPEALS PROCESS 2019

NSFAS runs a dual appeals process for the 2019 cycle, i.e. for first-time NSFAS applications and for registered returning students. Kindly note that only students whose applications have been assessed as unsuccessful may lodge an appeal.

FIRST-TIME NSFAS APPLICANT

Ineligible applicants for NSFAS funding may submit an appeal for their applications to be reviewed. Use the appeal form. Appeals must be submitted to applicationreview@nsfas.org.za.

APPEALS FROM 2018 NSFAS-FUNDED STUDENTS THAT NO LONGER MEET THE CRITERIA

Ineligible students for NSFAS funding may submit an appeal for reconsideration to the Financial Aid Office at your campus of study.

Appeals will be considered on the following grounds:

- Where a student exceeded the permitted number of years of study
- Request to change a study programme
- Change in family financial circumstances
- Where a student completed a GAP year due to academic performance
- Loss of bursary or sponsor
- Incorrect academic results submitted resulting in non-renewal of funding
- Failure to meet the academic performance requirements
- Other reason(s)

Closing date: Friday 8 March 2019.
