

1st place

Daniel Charters

What personal passion would you like to combine with Industrial Engineering to make a difference?

“I have a passion for education, and I really believe there are areas where what I've learnt can be applied to help grow education in our country.”

