

2nd place

Nico Heystek

What words of wisdom can you share with current Industrial Engineering students?

“Engineering is a team effort. Get yourself the right friends that will help you achieve your desired goal. Try to maintain a good balance between your family, friends and academic studies.”

