

3rd place

Marlize de Villiers

What personal passion would you like to combine with Industrial Engineering to make a difference?

“I am passionate about art and creating...I believe I can make a difference in society by solving problems in creative ways.”

