Dear Partners, Supporters and Friends,

In the Book of Psalms we are told that “The earth is the Lord’s and the fullness thereof, the world and they that dwell therein.” So those of us who take the Bible at its word must then accept that what we own is, in truth, only that with which we have been entrusted, hopefully as wise and faithful stewards.

It is because some such wise and faithful stewards decided to partner with Life Abundant that we have been able, once again this past year, to pursue our mission of “supporting the advancement of theological education and ministerial training by financially investing in any academic programme, scholarly research and community outreach which is aligned with Christian values, principles and standards, through the Faculty of Theology and Religion at the University of Pretoria.”

So I would like to dedicated this annual report, and all the blessings it recounts, to folks like Robert, a lifetime educator, Delon and Brenda, small business owners, and Nonmpumelelo, a public servant, in honour of the trust they have placed in the Life Abundant fund when they shared with us that which the Lord has shared with them. By passing on those same resources to the young adults on our varsity campus, we are simply following the example set before us, the wise, faithful and generous example of others.

Abundantly,

Dana Mahan

Fund Manager - Life Abundant

Faculty of Theology and Religion - University of Pretoria

"I'm currently doing my honours degree in Church History and Polity at the University of Pretoria. I'm a proud member of Evangelical Presbyterian Church in South Africa (EPCSA), and I'm a minister of religion in the same church. I had made it this far because of all the love and support I am receiving from all areas of life. God is good all the time. To Life Abundant Fund, I appreciate you giving me the kind of help I required. Your financial assistance has relieved a lot of pressure. I owe you a lot of thanks and more. Keep on with the good work as you continue to help all who are in need."

Shipalani Shivambu

"C.S. Lewis wrote, 'We can ignore even pleasure, but pain insists on being attended to. God whispers to us in our pleasures, speaks in our conscience, but shouts in our pains. It is his megaphone to rouse a deaf world.' With this being said, existential pain and poverty are realities in South Africa, and that is why I am volunteering my time at Steve Biko Academic Hospital as a form of hospital chaplaincy, to help patients battle mental health issues. This is a very challenging endeavour with a lot of difficult cases. South Africa is a country that values religion, but hospital chaplaincy is not recognised as a profession, and for this reason, there is a great need for pastoral counselling. In collaboration with HospiVision, I am able to give patients basic toiletries, pastoral support, and spiritual guidance through the spreading of Bibles and spiritually educational books. The Life Abundant Fund was able to make this possible, and that is why I am deeply grateful. I wish to thank each person who has supported me in this challenging task, and I pray that God bless you for your generous hearts! Henceforth, may the road rise to meet each of you."

Bonitta Botha

"The Life Abundant Fund has not only enabled me to continue studying and to complete my various degrees at the Faculty of Theology and Religion, but it has also allowed me the peace of mind to focus on research and pursuing a career as an academic. I am so thankful for this initiative and its leaders' belief and faith in me as a student. I hope that my contributions to the faculty and churches I serve can be a testament to the wonderful people who believed in me."

Charel du Toit

"I want to extend my heartfelt gratitude to the leaders and donors of Life Abundant for their generous support towards my registration. Your commitment to empowering individuals like me is truly inspiring. Thanks to your kindness, I now have the opportunity to be a part of this incredible community, and I am excited to embark on this journey of growth and abundance. Thank you for making a positive impact in my life."

Introductory Letter

Dear Student,

Thank you for choosing to study Theology and Religion at the University of Pretoria. We trust the training you receive here will equip you to one day join the legions of hardy souls working in Christian ministry both near and far, so that you can also play a part in transforming the world with the love and truth of God.

Because academic preparation of this calibre can be costly, the faculty leadership established Life Abundant, a support fund designed to help students overcome the economic obstacles which may stand between them and the education they deserve.

So if your current financial resources are not sufficient to meet your annual university expenses, and you have not previously received a grant from Life Abundant, then we as fund advisors invite and encourage you to apply for assistance.

To do so, you must first collect the following documentation:

- An application form – This file should have been provided to you along with the letter you now have in hand. Please print it out, then complete and sign it.
- Your academic record – A copy of your academic record at the University of Pretoria can be found through the portal, or requested from the faculty student administrator, Ms Cathy Sandis, in Office 21 on Level 1 of the Theology Building.
- A personal appeal – In a one page narrative, provide details about your family background, your degree or diploma programme, your career aspirations and the precise amount with which you want the fund to assist you.
- Your financial statement – Visit the Student Service Centre to secure this paperwork, with details regarding the balance of your account, or download it from the UP portal.

- A recommendation letter – Speak to one of the lecturers in the faculty with whom you have established a relationship through your course work, and ask him or her for a written endorsement of your performance as a student.

When completed and compiled, all of the above documentation can be brought in hardcopy format to Office 40 on Level 2 of the Theology Building between the hours of 08h00 and 14h00, or emailed as one full set to dana.mahan@up.ac.za. Your appeal will then be processed, and you will be informed of its outcome after the advisory council for the fund has taken the time to review your case.

Best wishes and kind regards,

Dana
