Magister Educationis in Educational Leadership (MEd) - 09250578

The student has to attend lectures on Saturdays (due to COVID-19 restrictions and regulations – classes are held via ClickUP / Blackboard), submit assignments, sit for tests/examinations and submit a mini-dissertation on an approved theme. Students should note that work on the mini-dissertation must commence in the first year of study.

A. Requirements for admission

A candidate can be admitted if she/he holds one of the following qualifications:

- a BEd Hons degree / BEd (Postgraduate); or
- an applicable Honours degree and a teacher's diploma; and
- has achieved an average of at least 60% in the Honours or related examination.

B. Selection procedure

Selection is based on:

- meeting the minimum academic requirements required for admission;
- previous academic performance;
- applicable academic and/or teaching background;
- availability of supervision for the required research project;
- proven academic potential which may include academic communication and computer application skills;
- additionally, an interview may be requested;
- the requirements of professional registration bodies;
- Department of EMPS Supervision Capacity
- the discretion of the Head of Department.
