

How to find Sci-Enza

- Coming from the north, from Johannesburg using the N1 or from the Johannesburg National Airport N1, into N4, becomes Pretorius Street, continue for approx. 1,2 km, turn left into Hilda Street – a one way street to the south, continue to the junction with Prospect Street and turn right. Continue to the entrance of the University.
- Coming from the east
N4, becomes Pretorius Street, continue for approx. 1 km, turn left into Hilda Street – a one way street to the south, continue to the junction with Prospect Street and turn right.
- Coming from the west
From Frances Baard Street (Schoeman Street), turn right into Hilda Street – a one way street to the south, continue to the junction with Prospect Street and turn right. Continue to the entrance.

The entrance to the campus is on the corner of Festival and Prospect Streets, marked C on the map below. Sci-Enza (36) is the first building on your right, once you have passed security. (GPS coordinates: 25.7519 S, 28.2316 E)

There should be parking in front of the building.

Entering from the main gate

Should you enter the campus at the main gate in Lynnwood Road, turn left into Ring Road once you have passed security. Turn right at the second stop sign. Follow the Ring Road through three 90° turns. Sci-Enza, a white building, will be on your left. There should be parking in front of the building.
