

Wessel M. Badenhorst

B.Com. (Accounting Sciences), B.Com. (Hons) (Accounting Sciences), M.Com. (Accounting Sciences), Ph.D. (Financial Management), CA(SA)

Wessel obtained all of his degrees from the University of Pretoria. He completed his articles with PwC in 2010 and is a registered Chartered Accountant (South Africa). After completion of his articles, Wessel lectured accounting at the University of Pretoria until mid-2016, after which he worked as a financial analyst at 36ONE Asset Management. He returned to the University of Pretoria in August 2019 and is currently a senior lecturer in the Department of Accounting. Wessel's research area is capital markets research, with a particular focus on the accounting drivers of stock market returns, the value-relevance of accounting information and the impact of fair value accounting.

Teaching synopsis:

Current courses: Financial Accounting 300

Previous courses: Accounting Assist (second and third year level)

Research synopsis:

Broad research area: Capital Markets

Research focus areas: Accounting drivers of stock market returns
Value-relevance of accounting information
The impact of fair value accounting