

Ke Yona – The Key Moments

The competition is often themed David versus Goliath as the lower division sides have a tendency of following the biblical storyline and produced biggest cup upsets. Kgomotso Sethusha cast eyes back to some of the key moments, ahead of the final between Orlando Pirates and SuperSport United tomorrow.

biggest upsets in domestic cup history, edging the mighty Amakhosi in an archetypical David v Goliath back in 2009. Their fairy-tale did not end there as they advanced through to the final where, unfortunately, they lost 1-0 to Moroka Swallows.

Indeed, it was much worse than a bad day in office as the Soweto giants sunk to one of their worst and most embarrassing defeats in history to second division Maluti FET College.

Sundowns maiden Nedbank cup winners

Winning the maiden Nedbank Cup, a 1-0 victory over Black Aces, prove a bad omen for Mamelodi Sundowns as they went on a seven-year cup drought, which saw a succession of decorated coaches fall short of breaking the winless streak.

First division AmaTuks punch above their weight

In their first ever cup quarterfinal match, AmaTuks pulled one of the Baroka make a mark

Baroka stunned Moroka Swallows in the last 16 round, shocked Kaizer Chiefs in the quarterfinals, before being stymied by Black Leopards in the semis. They could have reached the final only to be undone by a penalty shoot out loss, following a 1-1 draw.

Pirates taught a lesson by students

Roger de Sa described it as “a disaster of errors” and the 4-1 humiliation was as astounding as it was emphatic.

Sundowns record biggest win

No one saw it coming and certainly not even a crystal-ball gazer could have predicted a record 24-0 scoreline.

But that’s exactly what happened as the Brazilians ran riot and demolished hapless Powerlines FC in the biggest score ever recorded in the Nedbank Cup.

Defeat was beyond humiliating for amateur side who haven’t quite been the same since the fateful day in 2012. The Northern Cape side have been struggling to regain their fourth-tier division status since.
