Up and coming News

Time for Fun – TuksNetball will celebrate their year-end function on the 20th of October in a real Cowgirl Diamonds and Jeans fashion @ Uitspan. Time to reskill with a bit of line dancing. TuksSport Awards are a yearly glamorous event celebrating sporting excellence and a highlight on the calendar will take place on the 21st of October. TuksSport will be honoring National players such as, Ine-Mari Venter, Shadine van der Merwe, Izette Griesel and Tshina Mdau for their participating in the Commonwealth and African Qualifiers. We are holding thumbs for our nominees.

TuksNetball will also be involved in the launch of the Tshwane Netball Legacy plan, Thuto Legacy project – commemorating sporting legend Lynette Ferreira whos motto was “live, laugh and love” from 11 – 13 November 2022 at Cullinun Library Gardens where a pre-level coaching clinic, Level 1 Umpire course, Club development course, Team Management course and an existing Daisy Junior Elite Regional competition will take place on court. TuksNetball embraces outreach opportunities in the regions. Identification of players from a young age, strengthening of structures and competitive elite programs for players and coaches are necessary to build a sustainable strong netball district.
