

Special Orientation Programme for International Students (Newcomers)

A special Orientation Programme for new international students is offered by the International Cooperation Division (ICD) of the University of Pretoria, every year. This programme will be offered on 24 January 2020 for the new academic year. All non-South African citizens who are newcomers to the University of Pretoria are urged to join this programme to assist them in adjusting to their new environment with the least possible difficulty.
