FOOTBALL TEAM BOUNCE BACK IN GWANGJU

The men's football team picked up their first win of the tournament on Sunday, fighting back in the group stages on day three of the World Student Games in Gwangju, South Korea.

The South Africans, who had lost to France in their opening match three days earlier, secured a 3-1 victory over Ukraine in their second Group B fixture, with Jeremiah Nkwana scoring a second-half brace.

Elsewhere, Franko Jonker and Tara-Lynn Nicholas were the only South Africans to progress to the evening session on the second day of competition in the pool.

Jonker touched the wall in 1:09.03 in the women's 100m breaststroke semifinals, finishing 11th overall, and Tara-Lynn Nicholas ended in a tie for 14th, as both swimmers were eliminated ahead of the final.

In artistic gymnastics, Claudia Cummins did well to take 13th position in the qualification round, securing her place in the final.

Shooter Martin Davis settled in a tie for 18th position after the first day of the men's trap qualification.

Davis was set to compete again in the second round on Monday, for a place in the final.
