What does the programme entail?

The Bachelor of Commerce four-year programme has lower entrance requirements than the Bachelor of Commerce three-year programme, but has an initial foundation year added to the curriculum; followed by the three mainstream years. It provides students with the opportunity to pursue a career in commerce by following an extended curriculum. The four-year Bachelor of Commerce programme is presented at the Hatfield Campus.

Structure of the programme

Phase 1: Foundation year

- Content is delivered at a reduced pace using a variety of methods to remedy possible gaps in foundational knowledge.
- Smaller tutorial groups allow for more individual attention and dedicated support to students.
- Students are assisted to develop critical thinking and practical skills, which are crucial to long-term academic success.
- Focused attention is placed on developing students' language skills since good reading and communication skills are essential in the study and work environment.

Phase 2: Mainstream years

- Students must pass all their modules during Phase 1 to continue to Phase 2.

Who are the ideal candidates?

This programme caters for students whose National Senior Certificate (NSC) results do not comply with the minimum admission requirements for the mainstream Bachelor of Commerce [3 years] programme.

Career opportunities

Depending on curriculum composition, students can choose to specialise in a specific field by pursuing postgraduate studies in:

- Economic sciences
- Financial sciences
- Management sciences

What makes this programme unique?

The Bachelor of Commerce four-year programme is designed to accommodate students who did not initially meet the minimum admission requirements for the Bachelor of Commerce [3 years programme]. Such students need more academic support and a stronger foundational basis, but if they are willing to work hard they will achieve success, earn their degree and realise their goals.

Note: Selection criteria apply and will be communicated by the Faculty to applicants.

Careers: Although the degree does not lead to a specific vocational outcome it does, to some extent, offer students opportunities to determine their own career paths as it allows them to compile their own curricula with a view to future work opportunities in all sectors.

Note: Accounting at school is not a subject requirement for any of the Bachelor of Commerce and Bachelor of Administration programmes.
