Dear prospective law student

If you are reading this, you are probably considering studying towards a career in law and justice. Are you fueled by a desire to help others, solve their (legal) problems, and ready to make an impact on society? Complete the aptitude test below to see how you fare.

(Tick the appropriate box)

1

Motivation

I am:

- Committed to a successful, honourable career in law and justice.
- Passionate about law, and my decision to pursue a career in law and justice is based on something concrete such as spending time in a law firm or court and taking a real interest in societal interests linked to law and justice, instead of being misled by spurious TV series.

6

Digest and convert loads of information, scientific data and paperwork generated by cases

I have the ability to:

- Prepare strategies that require absorbing and comprehending vast quantities of information and distilling that into something manageable, relevant, valid and useful.
- Employ logic to construct arguments and draft legal documents.

2

Good listening and interpersonal skills, proficiency in languages, writing ability and literacy

I have the ability to:

- Persuade people to follow advice or convince them to negotiate a resolution.
- Read people and figure out the best approach.
- Adapt appropriate communication style.
- Communicate clearly and effectively in court, in writing, face-to-face or over the telephone.

7

Mental agility and reasonable, logical analysis, assumptions and conclusions

I have the ability to:

- Draw reasonable, logical conclusions and assumptions from limited information and analyse complex facts, versions, stories, hearsay, information, testimonies, etc, to identify the most crucial issues.
- Think like a lawyer. 'It is a form of swift reasoning, cool logic, effortless problem-solving skills and precision analysis. The kind of calculated mental weaponry that shields you from unhelpful, inflammatory emotions while actively disarming your opponent with one slash of your sharp verbal or written blade.'¹

3

Logical reasoning, persuasiveness and sound judgment

I have the ability to:

- Analyse and think critically, to follow a chain of logic to identify potential trouble areas in arguments and to spot weaknesses in the reasoning of others.
- Exercise sound judgment in deciding the best course of action to pursue.

8

Problem Solver-in-Chief

I have the ability to:

- Not become overly emotional when facing problems and explore options.
- Approach and view problems as challenges or life experiences and proactively and objectively address them.
- Solve problems, using a combination of intuition and logic to create solutions and finding opportunities.

4

Value honesty and integrity

I am aware that:

- Lawyers are subject to the highest degree of honesty, integrity and ethical conduct.
- I should possess intrinsic values such as work ethic, ethical conduct and integrity.
- I should always maintain the highest standard of honesty, integrity and fairness towards clients, courts, colleagues and all those with whom I shall come into professional contact with.

9

Time management

I have the ability to:

- Prioritise tasks and manage time effectively.
- Comprehend that the legal profession is based on procedures and limitations with accompanying prescriptions.

5

Adaptability, stamina, energy and resilience

I am:

- Creative, determined, enthusiastic, energetic, and possess drive, emotional intelligence and perseverance.
- Able to manage and run a profitable practice.

10

Attention to detail

I am

- An administrator of note and have an eye for detail. After all, I realise that lawyers do detail!
