

Magister Educationis (MEd)

This research programme is composed of a research proposal and a dissertation. It is presented in the following fields of specialisation:

- Adult and Community Education and Training (09250551)
- Assessment and Quality Assurance in Education and Training (09250561)
- Curriculum and Instructional Design and Development (09250541)
- Education Management, Law and Policy (09250573)
- Learning Support, Guidance and Counseling (09250502)
- General: Science, Mathematics and Technology Education (09250004)
- General: Humanities Education (09250005)
- General: Early Childhood Education (09250006)
- General: Education Management and Policy Studies (09250007)

A. Requirements for admission

A candidate can be admitted if he/she holds one of the following qualifications:

- i. a BEdHons degree/BEd (Postgraduate); or
- ii. an applicable Honours degree and a teacher's diploma; and
- iii. has achieved an average of at least 60% in the Honours or related examination.

B. Selection procedure

Selection is based on:

- i. meeting the minimum academic requirements required for admission;
- ii. previous academic performance;
- iii. applicable academic and/or teaching background;
- iv. availability of supervision for the required research project;
- i. proven academic potential which may include academic communication and computer application skills;

- v. additionally, an interview may be requested;
- vi. the requirements of professional registration bodies;
- vii. the discretion of the head of department.

C. Duration

The programme must be completed within two years. Please note that classes will be presented at least once a month on a Saturday from 8:00 - 16:00 for all the MEd programmes (NMQ 801).