

Short biography: Bronwin Sebonka

Ms Bronwin Sebonka is the administrator of the Centre of Diversity and Social Cohesion (CDSC) as well as the Journal of Student Affairs in Africa (JSAA). She works part-time in the Work Integrated Learning (WIL) Office and in the Computer Science Department. She holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in Public Administration and Governance from the North West University in Potchefstroom and a B Bachelor of Arts Honours degree in Public Administration and Management from the University of Pretoria.