

Dr Gerald Ramsden – Curriculum Vitae

Dr Gerald Ramsden is a practicing attorney with 35 years of experience, specialising primarily in corporate, commercial, and sports law. Having served as a director at two prominent Johannesburg law firms, Dr Ramsden now practises as a sole practitioner.

He holds a Bachelor of Arts (1984) and a Bachelor of Laws degree (1986) from the University of the Witwatersrand, along with a Master of Laws degree (with distinction) (2021) and a Doctorate of Laws degree (2023) from the University of Pretoria. His post-graduate legal studies focused on the civil and criminal law aspects of combat sports, reflecting his passion in the field of sports law.

In addition to his legal practice, Dr Ramsden currently serves as a part-time law lecturer at a private higher education institution and is an executive member of the South African Sports Law Association. He has extensive experience as a professional boxing administrator and was the legal draftsman of the current South African boxing regulations.

Dr Ramsden has a passion for both learning and teaching, believing that education enriches both the individual and society as a whole.
