Differentiate yourself with the ELA-accredited BCom (Supply Chain Management) degree

The University of Pretoria's Department of Business Management is the only European Logistics Association (ELA) National Certification Centre (NCC) in Sub-Saharan Africa. The goal of ELA is to provide an international forum for networking, promotion and development of the logistics and supply chain profession through its network of NCCs.

UP's association with ELA translates to the following benefits to students:

A degree accredited at Level 4: Candidate European Junior Logistician (CEJLog), based on the European Logistics Association Qualifications Framework Standards agreed by industry.

ELA candidates stand out from the crowd with a certificate that is a global mark of competence and promotes mobility in an international market place.

Offers graduates a smooth path to full ELA Certification once relevant experience is obtained.

EUROPEAN
ASSOCIATION

This program is accredited by the European Logistics Association based on the ELA Standards level 4.

EJLog: European Junior Logistician for supervisory/operational management level

ESLog: European Senior Logistician for senior management level

---

EMLog: European Master Logistician for strategic management level

Certification process:

Graduates have to pass the BCom (Supply Chain Management) programme with a Cumulative Weighted Average of 60% or higher to obtain the cEJLog Certificate issued by ELA.

An administration fee will be payable to obtain the cEJLog Certificate.

The Certificate is valid for 5 years from date of issue.

Candidates can submit a request for a full EJLog Certificate with proof of at least 3 years' relevant work experience. Upgrade requests will be verified based on the candidate's CV and a job description; project and/or situational interview and proof of employment at the relevant level.

The NCC at UP will administer the certification process.
