

UP Philosophy Areas of Supervisory Expertise

The following topics are those that staff of the University of Pretoria Department of Philosophy could supervise in the first instance at Doctoral level; some staff could supervise additional topics at Honours and Master's levels. Enquire to the Postgraduate Coordinator or a particular staff member for more information.

PERMANENT STAFF (in alphabetical order)

Prof Bernard MATOLINO

- African philosophy (all areas)
- Political theory (esp communitarianism and liberalism)
- Race and racism (esp ontology of race and social aspects of race)
- Epistemology (esp metaepistemology and social epistemology)

Ms Keo MBEBE (currently able to supervise at Honours and Master's level)

- Metaethics and normative ethics (esp. the nature of ethics, justice, and rationality)
- Epistemology (eg, the nature of rationality, knowledge, truth, reasons for belief)
- Philosophy of race (esp. the nature of race and related conceptual matters)
- Philosophy of emotions (incl. the relations with rationality and ethics)
- Philosophy of law (incl. the nature of law and its bearing on justice)
- Philosophy of history (esp. how to understand the nature of history and how to approach it)

Prof Thaddeus METZ

- African philosophy (esp. moral/political/legal theory, but possibly religion/metaphysics)
- Applied ethics (incl. bioethics; animal rights; media ethics)
- Comparative philosophy (incl. African/Confucian/Islamic/South American/Western)
- Meaning of life (and related issues, eg, well-being; mental health; death; axiology of theism)
- Philosophy of higher education (esp. aims; accountability; decoloniality)
- Political/legal philosophy (incl. human rights; economic justice; punishment; reconciliation)

Dr Thando NKOHLA-RAMUNENYIWA

- The ethics of technology (focusing on media, communications, transport and in African contexts)
- Political philosophy (especially relation to freedom and agency/autonomy)
- Environmentalism (esp. regarding the impact of technology)

Associate Prof Jonathan Chimakonam OKEKE

- African philosophy (methodology; epistemology; metaphysics; ethics; political philosophy; and history of African philosophy)
- Conversational thinking (foundation; method; doctrine; applications on selected topics in political philosophy and ethics)
- Logic (African contributions, especially the three-valued class as in complementary logic, harmonious monism, Ezumezu logic; Aristotelian and modern western logic, esp. Frege, Gödel, etc)
- Decoloniality and coloniality (esp. modernity; colonialism, neo-colonialism, and coloniality; imperialism; border thinking; epistemicide; epistemic marginalization; curriculum transformation)
- Identity (eg, politics of identity; cultural ramifications; relationality theory; digital and technological dimensions)
- Poverty (incl. politics of poverty; Odera Oruka; measurements; intellectual impacts)

Prof Emma RUTKAMP-BLOEM

- The philosophy and ethics of technology (incl. human-technology relations; data ethics; machine ethics; ethics and social robotics; policy research in AI ethics)
- The philosophy of science (esp. the structure of scientific theories; scientific realism; scientific methodology in the era of big data)
- Formal logic (non-classical logics, eg, preferential logic; modal logics, eg, epistemic logic)

Dr John SANNI

- African philosophy (African political philosophy, philosophy of religion, moral philosophy, difference and identity, decoloniality and coloniality)
- Continental philosophy (Heidegger, Levinas, Gadamer, Jean Luc-Marion, among others)
- Migration (Statism, cosmopolitanism, conceptions of faces and spaces, ethics of migrations)
- Violence (proper role of violence in society)

Dr Mpho TSHIVHASE

- Uniqueness of persons (incl. irreplaceability; incomparability; and their bearing on morality)
- Personhood (African and Western; implications for gender, race, and AI ethics)
- Ubuntu (its nature; principles; criticisms thereof)

AFFILIATED STAFF

Prof Philippe VAN HAUTE (extraordinary appointment; based at Radboud University)

- Philosophical anthropology (incl. theories of subjectivity and of the human from Kant to Foucault; Hacking and historical epistemology; status of psychiatric diagnostic categories; the normal vs. the pathological)
- Psychoanalytic theory (eg, relation between psychoanalysis and philosophy – historical and systematic aspects; Freud and the history of psychiatry)

Prof Ulrike KISTNER (emerita)

- Political philosophy (incl. sovereignty and the state; the concept of the political; theories of nationalism, ideology, totalitarianism; modernity; subjectivity; political theology; politics of human rights; theories of populism; critical race theory)
- Social philosophy (incl. collective action; collective self-constitution; theories of economic/social/symbolic exchanges; debates on social pathologies)
- Psychoanalytic theory (theories of sexuality; group psychology; aspects of the history of psychoanalysis and psychiatry)