INVITATION

UITNODIGING

TALETŠO

12/02/2015

The University of Pretoria's Faculty of Humanities and the Humanities Transformation Committee cordially invite you to join us at a public discussion forum as we lay the foundation for humanising transformation: 'Imagining a transformed higher education sector: lessons from home'.

Join the Faculty of Humanities and guest speakers Prof Melissa Steyn and Dr Nomalanga Mkhize as we imagine a transformed higher education sector and discuss the intellectual, disciplinary and personal lessons learned. The presentations will aim to provoke and inspire the UP community to continue conversations on transformation.

Speakers

Professor Melissa Steyn, DST-NRF SARCHI Chair in Critical Diversity Studies and Director of the Wits Centre for Diversity Studies

Dr Nomalanga Mkhize, History lecturer at Rhodes University and regular contributor to Business Day and other news media

DATE: Thursday, 12 February 2015

TIME: 12:00–14:00, followed by a reception

VENUE: Auditorium, Plant Sciences Complex

RSVP: corena.garnas@up.ac.za by 9 February

Die Universiteit van Pretoria se Fakulteit Geesteswetenskappe en Geesteswetenskappe se Transformasiekomitee nooi u hartlik uit om by ons aan te sluit wanneer ons die grondslag vir humaniserende transformasie tydens openbare besprekingsforum lê: 'Imagining a transformed higher education sector: lessons from home'.

Sluit aan by die Fakulteit Geesteswetenskappe en ons gassprekers, prof Melissa Steyn en dr Nomalanga Mkhize, om te gesels oor 'n getransformeerde hoëronderwyssektor en die intellektuele, dissiplinêre en persoonlike lesse wat ons geleer het. Die aanbiedings is daarop gemik om die UP-gemeenskap te prikkel en te inspireer om voort te gaan met gesprekke oor transformasie.

Sprekers

Prof Melissa Steyn, DWT-NRF SARCHI-leerstool in Kritiese Diversiteitstudies en Direkteur van Wits se Sentrum vir Diversiteitstudies

Dr Nomalanga Mkhize, Geskiedenisdosent aan Rhodes Universiteit en gereelde bydraer tot Business Day en ander nuusmedia
