- (5) SRC Elections must be held annually in the second semester of each year, by no later than the close of lectures in the second semester.

Section 26 Term of office

- (1) The term of office of the SRC and of the members of these bodies is one year, commencing on January 1 of the year following their election, and expiring on December 31 of that year.
- (2) Training of the newly elected SRC must take place after the SRC election and before commencement of their term of office.
- (3) Training will include mentorship offered by the incumbent SRC to the newly elected SRC. The incoming SRC will shadow the outgoing SRC through attending meetings and SRC commitments, and establish operating principles for their term.
- (4) All incoming members of the SRC are required to attend a mandatory ceremony for acceptance of the oath of office, arranged by the Department of Student Affairs. The newly elected SRC may only commence the training programme when they have taken oath of office, and may only assume their full role on completion of the training programme.
- (5) Provided the Eligibility Requirements are met and a candidate is elected in accordance with this Constitution, a SRC Member may stand, be re-elected and serve for a total of 2 (two) terms as an SRC Member, unless a candidate for her/his 2nd (second) SRC Term is elected to the Elective Portfolios of President or Deputy President, in which event the candidate is entitled to stand for a further 1 (one) SRC Term following her/his 2nd (second) SRC Term, provided that no candidate may stand, be re-elected and serve more than 3 (three) SRC Terms in total and no candidate may serve more than 2 (two) SRC terms in the same SRC portfolio.

Section 27 Code of Conduct

- (1) After the appointment of the members but before the commencement of the term of office of all Student governance structures all the members of such structures must sign the Code of Conduct. Failure to do so before the start of the term of office will result in the person concerned forfeiting her/his membership. The vacancy resulting from such forfeiture must be filled in accordance with the provisions of section 32 of this Constitution.
- (2) A written complaint of alleged breach of the Code of Conduct may be laid by a student or staff member with the Office of the Director: Student Affairs.
- (3) Upon receiving a complaint the Director: Student Affairs requests the Constitutional Tribunal to investigate the alleged breach. The Constitutional Tribunal must submit a report to the Director: Student Affairs within a reasonable time of receipt of the mandate.

- (4) If, after receiving the report of the alleged breach compiled by the Constitutional Tribunal, the Director: Student Affairs considers the complaint to be clearly unfounded he/she dismisses the complaint and informs the complainant accordingly.
- (5) If the Director: Student Affairs makes a finding that a serious breach of the Code of Conduct was in fact committed he/she may make an appropriate order. The order may include a fine and/or a ruling that the person must vacate his/her seat on the Student governance structure concerned.
- (6) If the Director: Student Affairs considers the alleged breach to be a transgression of the University's Disciplinary Code, the Director: Student Affairs may refer the complaint to the University disciplinary committee for Students, which acts in accordance with its powers.

Section 28 Meetings

- (1) Ordinary meetings of the SRC are held weekly. The first meeting of the SRC elect is held within a week after its election. No ordinary meetings are held during official examinations and recess periods. A schedule of ordinary meetings is prepared and communicated at the first meeting of the SRC.
- (2) On the instruction of the President, or at the written request of at least seven (7) of SRC members, accompanied by a proposed agenda, the SRC Secretary must convene a special meeting of the SRC forthwith: Provided that notice of this special meeting must be given to all members of the SRC at least twenty four (24) hours before the time for the commencement of the meeting, and such notice must include the date, time and place of the meeting, as well as the agenda for the meeting.
 - (a) Meetings are not open to the Public, provided that the Director: Student Affairs, Deputy Director: Student Affairs or any member of the Executive of the University, either of his or her own accord or at the invitation of the SRC may attend a SRC meeting as an observer.
 - (b) A person who intends to attend a meeting of the SRC as an observer must notify the SRC Secretary of said intention in order to be provided with a copy of the agenda. Where individual persons or particularly sensitive matters are discussed, the President may declare the discussion of a particular item closed to observers.
- (3) Meetings are chaired by the President provided that the President and the Deputy President may arrange that meetings or part thereof be chaired by the Deputy President.
- (4) Accurate minutes of all meetings must be kept and provided to members of the SRC, the Director: Student Affairs and Deputy Director: Student Affairs, and at their request, to the University Authorities. Minutes of SRC meetings are Public Documents and any member of the University community has the right, subject to fair procedural arrangements made by the SRC Secretary, to inspect the minutes of all previous meetings of the SRC. Once approved, minutes must also be posted on the SRC website.
- (5) The quorum for meetings of the SRC is two thirds of the members of the SRC. The quorum is determined at the start of the meeting. If the required quorum is not present at the beginning of a meeting the President or the Deputy President as the case may be, adjourns the meeting to a different date and immediately gives oral notice of the next meeting, stating the date, time and place of such meeting, and must contact all members of the SRC not present to inform them of the arrangements for the next meeting. If at that meeting a quorum is still not present, President or the Deputy President as the case may be, follows the same procedure as set out in this subsection. If at the third meeting the required quorum is still not present, a quorum is deemed to be present and the meeting continues as if it is properly constituted.

Section 29 Decision Making

- (1) Decisions taken by the SRC must be taken on the basis of robust discussion with a view to achieving consensus, failing which the members must vote to reach a decision.
- (2) Decisions taken by the SRC are taken on the basis of a simple majority vote of members present at a meeting where a quorum is present or deemed to be present.
- (3) If there is a split vote, the President casts the deciding vote.
- (4) When the SRC is not in session the Executive Committee of the SRC, in terms of section 23(1) of this Constitution, takes management decisions on the day-to-day technical and operational matters, provided that these are duly minuted and approved by the SRC at the next meeting.

Section 30 Dispute Resolution

- (1) Where a dispute arises in the SRC that renders the SRC unable to discharge its responsibilities or perform its duties, any member of the SRC may refer such dispute to the Constitutional Tribunal in the manner provided for in this section.
- (2) With a view to resolving the dispute the Constitutional Tribunal convenes and the Chief Justice, Acting Chief Justice, or a judge of the Constitutional Tribunal chairs a meeting of the SRC during which full discussion of the dispute is allowed. An additional two (2) judges of the Constitutional Tribunal may preside depending on the nature of the dispute.
- (3) Where the dispute is resolved, the Constitutional Tribunal records the resolution. Such resolution constitutes a binding decision of the SRC.
- (4) If notwithstanding the procedure described in this section, the dispute still remains unresolved the Constitutional Tribunal arbitrates the matter and makes a binding ruling.
- (5) The Director: Student Affairs may review the ruling if considerations of justice and fairness so require, and may amend or set aside the ruling. Such review must take place within one (1) week of the ruling being made.
- (6) The provisions of this section do not detract from the powers of the University Council described in section 33.

Section 31 Termination of Membership

- (1) A member of any of the Student governance structures ceases to be a member of the structure and immediately vacates his or her position when: –
 - (a) he or she ceases to meet any of the requirements set out in section 24 of this Constitution;
 - (b) he or she is found guilty by a disciplinary committee or tribunal of the University for a transgression of the Disciplinary Code or other rules and regulations of the University;
 - (c) in terms of section 27 he or she is found to have seriously transgressed the Code of Conduct of the SRC;

- (d) he or she in a written communication to the President of the SRC resigns;
 - (e) if he or she is a member of the SRC and is absent without written apology or without a written apology containing a valid reason from five (5) ordinary meetings of the SRC during his/her year of office; or
 - (f) if he or she fails to sign the code of conduct as provided for in section 27.
- (2) The Vice-Principal: Student Affairs and Residences or Director: Student Affairs must be notified forthwith in writing of any cessation of membership or removal from office and ratify the decision.

Section 32 Filling of Vacancies

- (1) In the event of a vacancy arising for whatever reason in any of the Elective Portfolios during the SRC's term of office the Director: Student Affairs must appoint the next available runner-up candidate (continuing to meet the Eligibility Requirements) in the SRC Elections for the specific vacant Elective Portfolio.
- (2) If no suitable candidate can be found in terms of section 32(1) the functions of the vacant Elective Portfolio must be reassigned by the SRC amongst the remaining SRC members holding Elective Portfolios for the remainder of the SRC Term.
- (3) In the event of a vacancy arising for whatever reason in any of the Ex Officio Portfolios, the relevant Student Sub-Council or Committee to which the vacant Ex Officio Portfolio relates, must as soon as possible following the occurrence of the vacancy, elect a replacing SRC Member, meeting the Eligibility Requirements, and subject to Regulation in Annexure A, for the vacant Ex Officio Portfolio for the remainder of the SRC Term and the Chief Electoral Officer must appoint this candidate for the specific vacant Ex Officio Portfolio.

Section 33 Extraordinary measures

- (1) If there are reasonable grounds for the Council of the University to believe that the SRC is objectively incapable of discharging its basic responsibilities and duties as described in section 22 and has as result become inoperative or unable to function properly the University Council may:
 - (a) dissolve the SRC, revoke this Constitution, make interim arrangements for the functioning of the SRC, and/or initiate a process to have a new SRC Constitution drafted;
 - (b) arrange for elections to be held in accordance with the election procedure in Annexure A within a period not exceeding six (6) months from the date of dissolution; and
 - (c) appoint a Temporary Student Committee consisting of 4 members of SRC and 8 members from other structures of student governance upon them meeting the eligibility requirements in section 24. The Temporary Student Committee will administer any urgent affairs of the SRC until a new SRC is elected.
- (2) If the SRC is not representative within the meaning of paragraph 59(4) of the Institutional Statute of the University of Pretoria, the Council may invoke section 59(10) of the Statute of the University of Pretoria.

Chapter 4 Constitutional Tribunal

Section 34 Establishment and Status

- (1) There is a Constitutional Tribunal that has the jurisdiction and functions in terms of this Constitution and in terms of a constitution of the Constitutional Tribunal that must be adopted by the SRC. The constitution of the Constitutional Tribunal is drafted by the judges of the Constitutional Tribunal in consultation with the SRC.
- (2) The Constitutional Tribunal replaced the Student Court on 1 January 2008, upon which the Student Court and any constitution providing for a Student Court were revoked.
- (3) The judges of the Constitutional Tribunal are appointed in terms of their own constitution.
- (4) The Constitutional Tribunal is independent, impartial and objective and receives an annual financial allocation from the Director: Student Affairs.
- (5) In the event of a dispute between the SRC and the Constitutional Tribunal or its justices, in relation to the adoption or ratification of the constitution of the Constitutional Tribunal, such dispute is decided by a dispute commission of legal experts appointed by the Vice-Principal: Student Affairs and Residences . The decision of the dispute commission is final.
- (6) Ordinary meetings of the Constitutional Tribunal must be held every other week in accordance with its own constitution. The first meeting of the Constitutional Tribunal is held within a week after the appointment of the judges.

Section 35 Jurisdiction of the Constitutional Tribunal

- (1) The Constitutional Tribunal has all the necessary powers to exercise the functions and duties described in this Constitution and all Annexure to the Constitution.
- (2) Any Student or any Student governance structure of the University may approach the Constitutional Tribunal to:
 - (a) align any constitution of a student governance structure with this Constitution;
 - (b) give a non-binding advisory interpretation of the Bill of Student Rights, this Constitution and any other constitution adopted in terms of this Constitution. Such advisory opinion is communicated to the person or structure, as the case may be, that has requested the opinion as well as to the Director: Student Affairs, Deputy Director: Student Affairs and the President of the SRC;
 - (c) adjudicate any dispute arising from the Constitution, including a dispute pertaining to the exercising of authority, the taking of a decision, or the execution of functions by any Student governance structure carried out in terms of this Constitution or a constitution adopted in terms of this Constitution; and
 - (d) investigate an alleged breach of the Code of Conduct for all student governance structures as described in section 27.
- (3) If an affected party refers the decision to the Director: Student Affairs, decisions by the Constitutional Tribunal in terms of section 35(2)(c) are subject to review by the Director: Student Affairs or his/her designated representative where considerations of justice and fairness so require.
- (4) In terms of the Disciplinary Code (Students) the Constitutional Tribunal appoints judges to sit on the presiding panels of Disciplinary Committees as Student members.

- (5) The Constitutional Tribunal and individual members of the Tribunal have the additional powers and functions, conferred upon it by the Executive of the University.

- (5) The SRC must make information available to the Student Body on ClickUP and on notice boards on all campuses on the procedure for lodging a complaint against a Service Provider.

Chapter 7 Mass meetings

Section 46 Purpose of mass meetings

Mass meetings provide the opportunity for open discussion of matters of pressing concern to the student body and/or for the SRC to seek the views of the student body on any matter within the jurisdiction of the SRC.

Section 47 Procedure in respect of holding a mass meeting

- (1) A mass meeting may be convened by the SRC on its own initiative or at the request of a student. If a mass meeting is requested by a student, the procedure as set out in subsection (2) must be followed.
- (2)
 - (a) A mass meeting may be requested by a student, referred to as the requester, by way of a petition signed by a minimum of two hundred (200) students of the University, and stating clearly and concisely the grounds for the request, submitted to the SRC Secretary.
 - (b) Upon receipt of a valid request under subsection (1) the SRC Secretary must as soon as reasonably possible advise the President of the SRC of the request and the SRC Secretary must convene a mass meeting within two (2) weeks of receiving the request.
 - (c) An Emergency Mass Meeting may be called by the SRC in consultation with the Vice-Principal: Student Affairs and Residences if an urgent matter affecting students arises and must be in line with the University policy on public gatherings.
 - (d) If the petition mentioned in subsection (1) does not contain at least two hundred (200) signatures of Students at the University or does not clearly state the grounds for the request of a mass meeting, then the SRC Secretary must give such petition back to the requester to rectify any defects in the petition.
 - (e) The SRC Secretary must place a notice of a mass meeting stipulating its date, time, place and agenda on the official notice boards at least seven (7) calendar days prior to the meeting.

Section 48 Procedural arrangements for mass meetings

- (1) The President of the SRC or another member of the SRC appointed by the President must act as chairperson of a mass meeting.
- (2) Mass meetings must be attended by all the members of the executive committee of the SRC and at least five (5) other members of the SRC. Failure of the aforementioned SRC members to attend a Mass Meeting is a violation of the Code of Conduct.
- (3) Only students of the University may attend and participate in mass meetings, provided that they present their student cards to the SRC Secretary or a member of the SRC acting on his/her behalf, when requested to do so.
- (4) A person who is not able to produce a valid student card upon request, may be requested by the SRC Secretary to leave the meeting.
- (5) The SRC Secretary must take minutes of the meeting and must make such minutes available within five (5) calendar days of the mass meeting either by keeping a hard copy of such minutes in his/her office to be copied upon request by a student or posting the minutes on the SRC web-page.

Chapter 8 Constitutional Amendments

Section 49 Normal Amendment Process

- (1) This Constitution may be amended by a two-thirds majority decision of the SRC reached at a meeting of the SRC duly constituted for such purpose and in consultation with the Constitutional Tribunal. The amendments will only be passed subject to the final approval by Council.
- (2) Any Annexures to this Constitution may be amended by a simple majority decision of the SRC reached at a meeting of the SRC duly constituted for such purpose and in consultation with the Constitutional Tribunal. The amendment(s) will only be passed subject to the final approval by Council.
- (3) Any proposed amendments to this Constitution or Annexures must be prepared and submitted for consideration by Council by the March meetings of Council each year.
- (4) Any proposed amendments to this Constitution or Annexures after March of each year may only be tabled for approval by Council at the last meeting of Council in the same year.

Section 50 Review of the Constitution and extra-ordinary measures

- (1) At least every five (5) years, after the adoption of this Constitution in 2013, a referendum must be held on whether the Constitution should be reviewed. A valid referendum will be constituted if at least the University's students voting in the referendum is equivalent to the number of voters of the immediate past SRC poll preceding the referendum.
- (2) If, by a simple majority in a valid referendum, it is found that the Constitution should be reviewed, The Vice-Principal: Student Affairs and Residences must establish, by mandate of Council, a Steering Committee to oversee and initiate the review and redrafting process of the Constitution for Student Governance.
- (3) The Steering Committee must consist of at least the following members:
 - a. A facilitator appointed or designated by the Director: Student Affairs;
 - b. Director of Student Affairs;
 - c. Deputy Director of Student Affairs;
 - d. A representative of the office of the Vice Principal: Student Affairs;
 - e. The SRC secretariat;
 - f. The Chief Electoral Officer of the IEC of the most recent election
 - g. Two (2) representatives of the SRC (one from the Elective portfolio and another from Ex-officio portfolios);
 - h. Two (2) representatives of the Constitutional Tribunal; and
 - i. Five (5) representatives of the Student Forum.
- (4) The Steering committee must meet within two weeks of its establishment to initiate a transparent, consultative review process.

- (q) Week means a period of five (5) consecutive days from a Monday to a Friday.

2. Election

- (1) SRC candidates for the Elective Portfolios must run as individuals and be elected by the Students in accordance with the Election Procedure. Candidates can disclose their society affiliations, and be supported in their campaign by societies to which they are affiliated, subject to the campaign rules

- (2) Students as defined in section 1 of the Constitution are entitled to nominate and vote for candidates for Elective Portfolios in the manner set forth under this annexure.
- (3) Elections for the SRC are held annually during the second semester in a Week determined by the Director: Student Affairs provided that the elections take place during a Week before the close of lectures.
- (4) The Director: Student Affairs or Deputy Director: Student Affairs must announce the dates of the annual elections to the incumbent SRC within 1 month of the commencement of the second academic semester and the SRC must announce such dates on the SRC website and on notice boards across all campuses.

3. Election Structures

- (1) Independent Electoral Committee and Chief Electoral Officer
 - (a) An Independent Electoral Committee [IEC] for each election must be constituted before the announcement of the annual elections for the SRC.
 - (b) The IEC is a body that organises the election process and discharges the duties set out in this chapter.
 - (c) The nineteen (19) electoral officers are appointed by the Director: Student Affairs in consultation with the Chief Electoral Officer. Electoral Officers may not stand as a candidate in the election or in any way be involved in campaigning in the election. Electoral Officers who are registered students receive no remuneration for their duties.
 - (d) The Chief Electoral Officer is a member of staff at, or service provider to the University, with suitable experience and qualifications appointed by the Vice-Principal: Student Affairs and Residences in consultation with the Director of Student Affairs, to act as the Chief Electoral Officer.
 - (e) The Director: Student Affairs must announce the Chief Electoral Officer to the incumbent SRC within a month of commencement of the second semester and the SRC must announce the name of the Chief Electoral Officer as well as the place at which nominations in terms of regulation 5 must be submitted on clickUP and the SRC website.
 - (f) The Chief Electoral Officer may, in consultation with the Director: Student Affairs, appoint students who are eligible to vote in the elections to provide administrative support to the IEC. Such Students may not be candidates in the elections or campaign in the elections and must at all times act impartially.
 - (g) The Chief Electoral Officer must report regularly to the Director: Student Affairs at intervals as agreed to between the Chief Electoral Officer and the Director: Student Affairs.
 - (h) The Chief Electoral Officer has the final responsibility to ensure that the IEC is performing its functions and duties. The Chief Electoral Officer also has the responsibility of announcing the results of the SRC Elections, after confirmation from the Independent Monitoring Body that all queries have been resolved, and that the elections were deemed free and fair.
 - (i) The IEC enforces the election rules, and ensures candidates comply with the campaign and election rules. Where the candidates do not comply with the rules, members of the IEC must take corrective action, and submit a record of the action taken to the Independent Monitoring Body.

- (j) The Chief Electoral Officer must communicate the penalty code for violation of election rules at the start of the election period.
- (k) If the IEC, of its own accord, becomes aware of a violation of these rules, then it must take immediate corrective action (as described in the penalty code). The IEC must submit a record of the action taken to the Independent Monitoring Body, as soon as is reasonably possible.
- (l) Any person may lay a complaint regarding a violation of these rules with the IEC. The IEC must investigate such complaint, and decide whether or not to take corrective action (as described in the penalty code). The IEC must submit a record of the decision to the Independent Monitoring Body as soon as is reasonably possible.
- (2) Independent Monitoring Body
- (a) An Independent Monitoring Body is constituted before the announcement of the annual elections for the SRC, consisting of -
- three (3) members of the outgoing Student Representative Council, designated by the Student Representative Council, who are not candidates in the elections;
 - not more than three (3) persons designated by the Office of the Director: Student Affairs;
 - not more than three (3) persons designated by the Office of the Vice-Principal responsible for Student Affairs; and
 - two (2) Constitutional Tribunal judges, who do not serve on the Electoral Committee and who will not be adjudicating a matter flowing from the election.
- (b) The Independent Monitoring Body is chaired by the Director: Student Affairs or his/her representative on condition that the same person cannot be the Chairperson of the Independent Monitoring Body and the person who approves the election material as stipulated in this chapter.
- (c) The Independent Monitoring Body must ensure that elections are free and fair through the monitoring of all the phases of an election, including: –
- nominations and nomination procedures;
 - campaigning procedures and activities;
 - voting and voting procedures;
 - the design, printing, distribution and collection of ballot papers;
 - the counting of votes and the announcement of results.
- (d) The Independent Monitoring Body must meet regularly as required during the election period.
- (e) Complaints or objections relating to the elections must be lodged in writing with the IEC during the entire election period, provided that such complaints are lodged in writing and are submitted not later than 22:00 of the day of the election.
- (f) When receiving a record from the IEC as contemplated in regulation 3(1)(k) or 3(1)(l) the Independent Monitoring Body reviews the action or decision of the IEC as soon as is reasonably possible. If an interested party is dissatisfied with any decision of the Independent Monitoring Body, they may lodge a final appeal to the Vice-Principal: Student Affairs and Residences within 24 hours of the decision of the Independent Monitoring Body being communicated.

- (g) If, on review by the Independent Monitoring Body it appears that the grounds for the complaint or objection constitute a serious transgression of the election rules, which are regarded as institutional rules, the Independent Monitoring Body must refer the complaint or objection to the Disciplinary Committee (Students).
- (h) Before declaring an election free and fair, the Independent Monitoring Body must attend to all complaints and objections. The Independent Monitoring Body has the authority to declare the entire elections free and fair. It also has the power to declare the election process in part of the poll as null and void, after which the election process in the affected part must start anew as soon as possible.

4. Nominations

- (a) The period for submitting nominations for the new SRC will start at the date determined by the Director: Student Affairs provided that such date of commencement must be announced by the Director: Student Affairs to the incumbent SRC within a month of commencement of the second academic semester. The SRC must then announce such date to the student body by placing a notice on the website of the SRC. The SRC must make these announcements within three (3) days of being notified thereof by the Director: Student Affairs.
- (b) All nominations will close on the date determined by the Director: Student Affairs. Such date must also be announced to the current SRC and such must forthwith announce the relevant date on the SRC website.
- (c) Any candidate meeting the Eligibility Requirements as set out in section 24 stands as an individual and may be nominated for any of the elective portfolios.
- (d) To stand for any of the elective portfolios the candidate must have been nominated by a Nominator and Seconded by Students on the following basis:
 - (i) For the position of President of the SRC: A Nominator nominating the candidate for the position of President together with the secondment of 200 (two hundred) Students (signatures and student numbers).
 - (ii) There is no separate ballot for the positions of Deputy President or SRC Deputy Secretary, and hence there is no nomination for these two positions. Instead, the runner up (second highest votes) on the President ballot will be elected Deputy President, and the runner up (second highest votes) on the SRC Secretary ballot will be elected SRC Deputy Secretary.
 - (iii) For the other Elective Portfolios: A Nominator nominating the candidate for the specific Elective Portfolio together with the secondment of 100 (one hundred) Students (signatures and student numbers).
- (e) A candidate can make themselves available for no more than two (2) portfolios. If a candidate chooses to make themselves available for 2 portfolios, both of these portfolios would be stated on the nomination form, and the signatures would be applicable to both positions. If one of the two portfolios includes the President position, then secondment of 200 signatures applies

5. Nominations for Elective Portfolios

- (1) To be nominated for any of the elective portfolios, the following information must be submitted by or on behalf of a candidate to the Chief Electoral Officer:
 - (a) A Nomination Form in the prescribed form (Annexure B), signed by the Nominator indicating the elective portfolio(s) for which the candidate is nominated.
 - (b) An Acceptance of Nomination Form in the prescribed form (Annexure B), signed by the candidate and indicating the willingness of the candidate to stand for the Portfolio(s) including an undertaking by the candidate to be bound by all the provisions of the Constitution for Student Governance, including this annexure.
 - (c) A copy of the page of the candidate's ID book on which the candidate's photo, name and ID number appear, or a copy of the relevant page(s) of the candidate's passport in case of an international student.
 - (d) A complete Academic Transcript of the candidate.
 - (e) The Election Manifesto of the candidate.
 - (f) An A5 colour photograph (head and shoulders) of the candidate as first choice but a black and white photograph will not be rejected.
 - (g) A Secondment Form (Annexure C) prescribed by the IEC to be used for the collection of information and signatures and student numbers of all students that Second a candidate for election for an Elective Portfolio(s).
- (2) The Chief Electoral Officer must provide all the required information on behalf of each candidate to the IEC by the end of the nomination period.
- (3) The Chief Electoral Officer and the IEC must keep confidential the submission of nominations by candidates until the formal announcement thereof by the IEC in accordance with this Election Procedure.

6. Review and Correction of Nominations

- (1) The IEC must reject incomplete candidate nomination submissions.
- (2) The Chief Electoral Officer together with the IEC must consider all nomination submissions received to determine whether the candidate meets the submission requirements for her/his specific portfolio. Where the IEC determines an inconsistency or suspects the reliability of information provided, the IEC must take reasonable steps to confirm the validity of the information as soon as is reasonably possible and the IEC must inform the relevant candidate as soon as possible of the incomplete nature of their application. Where the IEC cannot reach a decision as to the acceptability of a nomination submission, it must refer the submission to the Constitutional Tribunal for a final and binding decision regarding acceptability.
- (3) Where the IEC, having received a nomination on the closing date for nominations, determines that the nomination submitted by a candidate does not meet all of the nomination requirements for the specific portfolio for which the candidate is nominated or either the nomination form or the acceptance of the nomination form or both forms are not in the prescribed form:
 - (a) the IEC must immediately inform the candidate of the shortcoming and request the candidate to correct his/her submission within 24 (twenty-four) hours after receipt of notification from the IEC.
 - (b) Up until the expiry of the 24 (twenty-four) hour period after receipt of notification, the IEC must accept the corrected nomination submitted by the candidate despite being submitted after the closing time for nominations, and must be deemed to have been validly submitted.

7. Insufficient Nominations

Where, upon the closing time for nominations, the IEC determines that:

- (1) no nominations have been received for particular SRC elective portfolio(s), but nominations have been received for at least seven (7) of the twelve (12) SRC elective portfolios available for election, the IEC must extend the nomination period for such period of time as it deems appropriate to encourage further nominations for the outstanding portfolio(s), but which period may not exceed 72 (seventy-two) hours. After the expiry of such extended nomination period, the IEC will continue with the SRC Election irrespective of whether there are Portfolios for which no nominations have been received. Any SRC vacancies within the SRC after the election must be allocated by the newly elected SRC in accordance with section 21(4) of the Constitution.
- (2) nominations for less than seven (7) of the twelve (12) SRC elective portfolios available for election have been received, the IEC may, in consultation with the Director: Student Affairs, extend the nomination period in accordance with paragraph (1), or suspend the SRC Elections to allow the IEC to promote Student candidacy and engage with Student Structures to ensure that nominations are submitted. The IEC and the Director: Student Affairs must within a reasonable time agree on an appropriate new week for the elections and such week must forthwith be announced by the Director: Student Affairs on clickUP and notice boards across all campuses.

8. Announcement of Nominations

- (1) After the closing of nominations and where the IEC continues with the SRC Elections, the Chief Electoral Officer must announce the list of candidate submissions for each SRC portfolio.
- (2) Any person may lodge an objection with the IEC regarding the eligibility of any candidate, within 24 hours of the announcement of the list of candidates.
- (3) At the start of the campaigning period, the Chief Electoral Officer must hand the list of candidate submissions together with their Election Manifestos (where applicable) to the Perdeby for publication in an election issue of the Perdeby, together with details of the Election period and relevant aspects of the Election Procedure applicable to voting by Students.
- (4) Additionally, the IEC must ensure that at least two weeks prior to the elections the details of the Election period and necessary aspects of the voting procedure are posted on notice boards across all Campuses and posted on the SRC website.
- (5) All nominated candidates of Elective portfolios must attend a compulsory preparatory workshop presented by the Department of Student Affairs to prepare candidates for the process of campaigning.

9. Campaigning

- (1) The Independent Electoral Committee must, after the nomination and registration period has closed but before the commencement of the campaigning period, call a compulsory meeting with all stakeholders participating in the election to discuss the detailed explanation of the election rules and procedures.

- (2) No campaigning may take place from the start of the nomination period until the date and time for the start of the campaign period, as announced by the Chief Electoral Officer and/or the Director: Student Affairs.
- (3) From the start of the nominations period, no society activity that can be linked to promoting any candidate will be permitted on Campus. The approval of society events during the election period will be at the discretion of the Director: Student Affairs, in consultation with the Chief Electoral Officer.
- (4) Through campaigning, candidates must have an opportunity to address the Student Body, present their Election Manifestos and canvas Student votes for the upcoming SRC Election through multiple prearranged forums on University premises, subject to reasonable conditions, adherence to a stipulated programme, and good decorum. The election circus programme will be drawn up and publicised by the Chief Electoral Officer.
- (5) All candidates for elective portfolios must attend and participate in official Campaign Meetings according to the rotation schedule established by the IEC.
- (6) During Campaign Meetings candidates must be afforded the opportunity to present their Election Manifestos and engage in debates. Students must also have the opportunity of posing questions to candidates and engaging with candidates in respect of their Election Manifestos.
- (7) The IEC must appoint a suitably qualified chairperson, based on that person's experience and qualifications, for each Campaign Meeting to ensure that Campaign Meetings proceed in an orderly and fair manner allowing all candidates an equal opportunity to make representations, debate issues and answer questions from the Student Body and other candidates.
- (8) In addition to the Campaign Meetings the Department of Student Affairs must award each candidate standard form posters on which such candidate can include a photograph (shoulder to head) of the candidate as well as the candidate's election manifesto and any appropriate logo or slogan which is not derogatory, offensive, insulting and which does not amount to hate speech. The quantities of posters per candidate will be equitable, and determined by the Department of Student Affairs based on the number of candidates running for a particular election.
- (9) According to the University Poster Regulation, posters may only be placed on official notice boards and lamp posts on the inside of the campus. No posters may be placed alongside the Ring Road, on any traffic signs or fencing or at any campus perimeter. Further, a candidate may only place one poster up per pole/ lamppost and/or notice board. This measure is to ensure that each candidate will be given opportunity to display their posters.
- (10) No election material may be distributed at the entrances to the various campuses.
- (11) No-one shall be allowed to distribute flyers, pamphlets, posters, booklets, cards, and the like, or any other merchandise, on behalf of a candidate. Distribution of inducements and freebies is expressly prohibited for purposes of soliciting votes.
- (12) T-shirts or other items of clothing worn by candidates are permissible. Flags and/or banners are expressly prohibited.
- (13) The IEC may adopt such additional campaigning rules as it deems necessary and appropriate to ensure a free, equal and democratic campaigning process. Any additional campaigning rules must be made available on clickUP, notices and posters on all campuses on announcement of the election period, and must be in accordance with the Constitution of the Republic of South Africa, the Constitution for Student Governance and this Annexure.

- (14) If justified, the Department of Student Affairs may at its discretion make an allowance available per candidate for incidental election expenses by way of vouchers for campaigning. At the launch of the elections, DSA will make available a list of available campaign products and services that candidates may use, for which vouchers can be issued through the Tuks Toonbank.
- (15) IEC will set up a panel to pre-approve campaigning material. An electronic/ hardcopy sample of this campaigning material must be submitted to the Independent Electoral Committee and Director: Student Affairs at least 48 hours before distribution. Any material that has not been pre-approved and does not comply with agreed and published guidelines and specifications will be removed, and may lead to punitive action against the candidate, including cancellation of their candidature. Any candidate who is aggrieved by the decision of the Pre-Approval Panel may take such decision on review to the Independent Monitoring Body.
- (16) If a candidate disputes the finding of the Chief Electoral Officer, the Independent Monitoring Board or their representative, the candidate can formally and in writing, appeal to the Vice Principal: Student Affairs and Residences for the approval of the marketing material.

10. Election Procedures

- (1) The Director: Student Affairs, will determine the voting platform (manual, electronic, or mixed) based on options available to the University, in which students will be enabled to vote for candidates of the elective portfolios.
- (2) Voting for candidates for elective portfolios must take place confidentially and be verifiable to settle any disputes. Security measures must be put in place to prevent voter fraud.
- (3) The Director: Student Affairs will determine the voting period, with the minimum period being not less than one working day, depending on the platform used to conduct the vote.
- (4) Each student will be allowed to vote for one candidate per elective ballot and may vote for a candidate in any or all of the ballots for the elective portfolios.
- (5) Should there at any stage during the week of elections be any complications with the administration of the voting process, which makes it objectively impossible for some or all students to vote then such an occurrence must be announced by the Chief Electoral Officer and the chief electoral officer may extend the voting period by another two (2) days after the problem has been rectified
- (6) A ballot will name the portfolio, show the names of the candidates contesting the portfolio, a head-and-neck photograph with a blank background, and a brief descriptor not exceeding 160 characters for each candidate, including an indication of their affiliations, information or experience, if they so choose. No logos are allowed to appear in any way on the ballot paper.

11. Polling stations and polling officials

- (1) The Independent Electoral Committee determines the location and number of polling stations for elections on all Campuses in such a manner that all Students are given a reasonable opportunity to vote.
- (2) The location of polling stations must be finalized and communicated at least one (1) week before voting starts.

- (3) Polling stations are staffed by polling officials appointed by the office of the Director: Student Affairs. Each polling station shall be staffed by two (2) such appointed persons who shall be remunerated for their services, as well as regular monitoring by the Independent Monitoring Body throughout Election Day.

12. Nominations for Ex Officio Portfolios

- (1) If the situation arises that less than 40% of the elective portfolios are taken up by white students or less than 40% by black students or less than 40% by male students or less than 40% by female students, the Chief Electoral Officer must convene and chair successive meetings with the Sub-Councils and Committees and being mindful of section 33(2) of the Constitution, these meetings must aim to resolve to elect such representatives to the SRC to address the racial or gender imbalance(s) of the elective portfolios.
- (2) Sub-Councils and Committees must strive to elect a mix of undergraduate and postgraduate Students as well as Students with disabilities to the Ex Officio Portfolios on the SRC. To ensure transparency and accountability, reasons must be provided for any decision taken in this regard.

13. Announcement of Results

- (1) After the conclusion of the election and verification of the provisional results (as audited by the University of Pretoria auditors) by the IEC, the Chief Electoral Officer must announce the provisional results by printing a copy of the provisional results and making such available to the student body for viewing. Any person may lodge an objection regarding the provisional results to the Chief Electoral Officer within 24 hours after the announcement of the provisional results. The Chief Electoral Officer must then consider and rule on the objection.
- (2) As soon as all objections to the provisional results have been considered and ruled upon, the Chief Electoral Officer must announce the final results by printing a copy of the final results and making such available to the student body for viewing.
- (3) The Chief Electoral Officer allocates the relevant Elective Portfolio for the next SRC Term to the candidate for each Elective portfolio receiving the highest number of valid votes for that Elective Portfolio, except for the portfolios of Deputy-President and SRC Deputy-Secretary.
- (4) The Chief Electoral Offices also allocates the Elective portfolio of Deputy President to the candidate receiving the second highest number of valid votes from the ballot of President, and the Elective portfolio of SRC Deputy Secretary to the candidate receiving the second highest number of valid votes from the ballot of SRC Secretary.
- (5) Where a situation arises where a particular candidate meets the requirements to be allocated more than one Elective or Ex officio portfolio, the candidate elects which one of the available portfolios he/she will be allocated. The next available runner-up candidate for the other portfolio is then allocated the other portfolio.

14. Equality of Votes

- (1) If 2 (two) or more candidates for a portfolio receive an equal number of valid votes, the Chief Electoral Officer must, within 7 (seven) days of the announcement of results hold a by-election in respect of only those portfolios and the specific candidates where the votes have been tied. The provisions of this Election Procedure apply mutatis mutandis (with appropriate amendments) to the holding of such by-elections by the IEC.

- (2) The Chief Electoral Officer may not announce the results of the SRC Elections until the by-election has been finalised and the results determined.

15. Commencement of SRC Term

- (1) Following the conclusion of SRC Elections, which includes the finalisation of any process of revision of the election results, the Chief Electoral Officer must within 10 (ten) days of such finalisation, confirm the appointment of the SRC Members for the Elective Portfolios and the Ex Officio Portfolios.
- (2) The SRC Term of outgoing SRC members terminates on 31 December of each year and the term of the newly elected SRC commences on 1 January of each year.
- (3) A member of the Constitutional Tribunal must swear in the newly elected SRC members before commencement of their term.
