AFRICA DIALOGUE LECTURE SERIES

10 AUGUST 2010

The Institute for Strategic and Political Affairs (ISPA) at the University of Pretoria

cordially invites you to a lecture in the ongoing Africa Dialogue Lecture Series on South Africa's economic development challenges:

Engaging the world through tourism to be presented by

Ambassador Kingsley Makhubela

Former Chief of State Protocol and now Director-General of the Department of Tourism

Ambassador Makhubela was a member of MK during the 1980s and chief of ANC President Oliver Tambo's security team in Lusaka. From 1991-94, he was Deputy Chief Representative of the ANC observer mission to the UN in New York. From 1994 until early 2010, he occupied various positions in the Department of International Relations and Cooperation and served as High Commissioner to Kenya and Ambassador to Portugal. In June 2010, he was appointed Director-General of the Department of Tourism. Ambassador Makhubela has recently completed the degree Master of Diplomatic Studies at the University of Pretoria.
