

CALL FOR APPLICATIONS

2013 COMMONWEALTH SPLIT-SITE DOCTORAL SCHOLARSHIPS

The National Research Foundation (NRF) is a Nominating Agency for South African citizens seeking to apply for 2013 Commonwealth Split-Site Doctoral Scholarships.

Key features of the Commonwealth Split-Site Scholarships:

- The scholarships support attendance at a United Kingdom (UK) university or institution for one (1) year, under the joint supervision of the South African-based and UK supervisors.
- Applicants should be registered for a doctoral degree at a South African Higher Education Institution (HEI). The final qualification obtained will be from the South African HEI and not the UK university.
- The twelve (12) months in the UK can be taken at any stage of the doctoral study period providing this is justified in the study plan. Note that the time spent in the UK can be divided into two periods.
- The scholarships cover:
 - Full tuition fees for one (1) year at the UK host university;
 - Stipend for up to one year (1) in the UK;
 - Return Airfare; and
 - Other allowances.

An Electronic Application System will be used for applications and the NRF will process the nominations electronically. All applications, referee reports, certified copies of academic transcripts and other supporting documentation must be submitted online.

Please read through the Guide for Split-Site applications and Scholarship Prospectus before commencing with the application.
