

SCHOOL of CONTINUING EDUCATION of the MINISTRY of FOREIGN RELATIONS of ECUADOR

Following activities and study programmes are being offered for 2012

1. International Conference

“Alternatives for Sustainable Development : How to change the Social Paradigm, with emphasis in the human and nature centrality”

Dates: 5, 6 and 7 June 2012
Venue: Ministry of Foreign Relations – Quito, Ecuador
Languages: Spanish, English
Deadline for applications: 25 March 2012

For more information email: The Embassy of Ecuador in South Africa
ecusudafrica@mmrree.gov.ec

2. Summer Course

“The Model of Development of Good Living for all Ecuadorians and the prospect of the Latin American Integration”

Dates: 24 July to 24 August 2012
Venue: Ministry of Foreign Relations – Quito, Ecuador

Aim of course: to inform and teach young adults, students, professionals, political leaders and civil society advocates on the alternative human development path that is presently in progress in Ecuador, in the framework of specific international and Latin American contexts.

Selection Criteria for the Summer School:

- Knowledge and experience acquired by means of completed studies (good academic progress) or experience with volunteer work, social movements.
- Knowledge of Spanish language
- Ages between 18 and 39 years old
- Heterogeneity within the nationalities of origin

Costs & Obligations for the Summer School:

- Tuition & literature handed out are free of charge
- Air tickets, accommodation and other costs will be for the participants account

Application Process for the Summer School:

- Request form from The Embassy of Ecuador in South Africa or for additional information (ecusudafrica@mmrree.gov.ec)
- Form must be completed in Spanish
- Letter of Motivation giving full details of experience (academic & social)
- Explanation of the reasons why you wish to participate

Email application to: escueladeveranoecuador@gmail.com

Deadline: 13 May 2012