

Kader Asmal Fellowship

Masters Studies

Canon Collins Trust, on behalf of the Government of Ireland, invites applications for the Kader Asmal Fellowship Programme.

The fellowship programme has two strands:

A: Eight annual awards for postgraduate study in

- Business Management;
- Agriculture, Food Science & nutrition; and
- Public Administration

For more information and a list of approved courses and universities, click here.

B: A fellowship in Human Rights Law at Trinity College Dublin to be selected by the Council for the Advancement of the South African Constitution (CASAC)

For more information and a list of approved courses, click here.

Are you eligible?

To apply for this scholarship through the Canon Collins Trust you must:

- be a national of South Africa or Zimbabwe
- legally resident in South Africa
- be in possession of a good first degree (minimum second class, upper division or equivalent) or about to graduate in the year of application.
- be applying for a full-time one-year master's degree in one of the eligible courses at an approved Irish university

For full eligibility criteria please see the Scholarship Guidelines.

What the Fellowship offers

The Kader Asmal Fellowships will cover:

- university application fees
- tuition fees;
- examination and other fees
- economy travel to and from your country of residence to Ireland;
- settling in allowance, book allowance and study allowance
- accommodation;
- a monthly personal living allowance (stipend) to cover other living expense for you only and
- the costs of an entry clearance (student visitor visa) application

How to apply

You must apply through the Canon Collins online portal.

<http://www.canoncollins.org.uk/ireland.html>

The online application system will close at midday GMT on Monday 17 February 2014.

Incomplete applications will not be considered

Applicants will hear the outcome by 30 April 2014

Note:

Applicants need not apply to the university before applying for a fellowship. Successful candidates need only apply to their chosen university once the award has been made. At that time any application fees will be paid by the Fellowship Programme.