

Europe Studies in African perspective: Transforming paradigms of culture

An interdisciplinary Conference to be held at University of Pretoria, Humanities Building 3-18.1 11 – 13 November 2010

Thursday 11 Nov

- 17h30 Registration
- 18h00 – 18h15 Opening Address
Prof S Vil-Nkomo, Executive Director of the University of Pretoria
- 18h15 – 18h30 Keynote Address
Ambassador Mary Sibanda-Thusi, former South African Ambassador to France and Chief Director: Europe, Department of International relations and Cooperation
(DIRCO)
- 18h30 Buffet

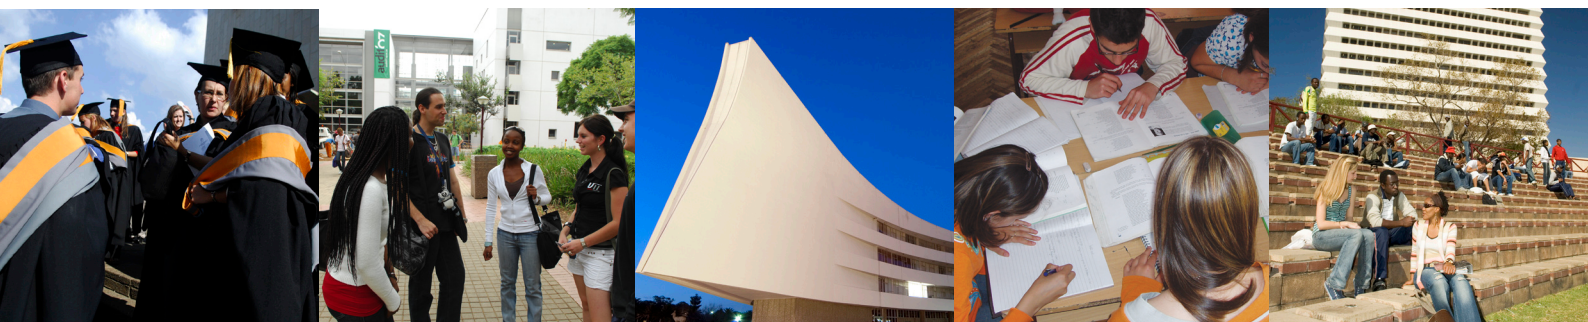

Friday 12 Nov

- 09h00 – 09h45 Lorenzo Fioramonti (University of Pretoria)
How African countries perceive Europe
- 09h45 – 10h30 Thomas Kirsch (University of Konstanz)
Reversing Flows of Knowledge?
Perspectives from World Anthropology
- 10h30 – 10h45 Tea Break
- 10h45 – 11h30 Lize Kriel (University of Pretoria)
Reading Europe
- 11h30 – 12h15 Dirk Human / Elija Mahlango
(University of Pretoria)
Africa and Europe – discussion partners in Theology and Religion

- 12h15 – 13h00 Heinrich Ohloff
(University of Pretoria)
17th century Dutch travellers as constructors of identity
- 13h00 – 14h00 Lunch
- 14h00 – 14h45 Gerrit Olivier (University of Pretoria)
South Africa and the West: What sort of a relationship?
- 14h45 – 15h30 Ulrike Kistner (UNISA)
Europe beside itself
- 15h30 – 16h15 Pieter Swanepoel (University of Pretoria)
Johannes Phokela's opinionated appropriations of Western paradigms

Saturday 13 Nov

- 09h00 – 09h45 Ethel Matala (University of Konstanz)
Perpetual warfare. Cultural Perspectives on Civil wars
- 09h45 – 10h30 Michelo Hasungule (University of Pretoria)
Human Rights in an African-European Perspective
- 10h30 – 11h15 Stephan Mühr (University of Pretoria)
A hermeneutical approach to Europe
Studies in African Perspective
- 11h15 – 12h00 Summary and Closure
- 12h00 Lunch

UNIVERSITEIT VAN PRETORIA
UNIVERSITY OF PRETORIA
YUNIBESITHI YA PRETORIA
Faculty of Humanities