Die Instituut vir Internasionale Reg en Regsvergelyking in Afrika van die Fakulteit Regsgeleerdheid van die Universiteit van Pretoria sal 'n seminar aanbied oor die nuwe Grondwet van Kenia, wat deur 'n referendum aanvaar is op 4 Augustus 2010. Hierdie seminar is die eerste in 'n reeks wat sal handel oor konstitusionele ontwikkelings in Afrika.

Die gasspreker is prof Christina Murray (UK), tans gestasioneer in Nairobi, waar sy een van drie buitelandse lede is wat dien op die Keniaanse Komitee van Spesialiste wat die nuwe Konstitusie voorberei het. Prof Murray sal fokus op die onderhandelingsproses van die Keniaanse Konstitusie, sowel as die hoofkenmerke daarvan.

Ons sal dit waardeer as u kan deelneem aan hierdie geleentheid.

The Institute for International and Comparative Law in Africa of the Faculty of Law of the University of Pretoria will host a seminar on the new Kenyan Constitution, which was adopted by referendum on 4 August 2010. This seminar constitutes the first in a series on constitutional developments in Africa.

The keynote speaker is Prof Christina Murray (UCT), currently based in Nairobi where she is serving as one of three foreign members on the Kenyan Committee of Experts which prepared the new Constitution. She will focus on the Kenyan constitution-making process, as well as the main features thereof.

We would be delighted if you could participate in this event.
