

Editor/s

Chief Editor : Mpho Selepe
Journalists : Luyanda Nzama
: Nthabiseng Nooe
: Sina Malebana

Coming up...

- Announcement of NATHouse EC 2011/2012
- Spring Day— 7 Sep 2011.

NAT that

- The end of the road 2010/2011!
- 411
- The team behind this...
- The NAT Cracker

The NAT Cracker

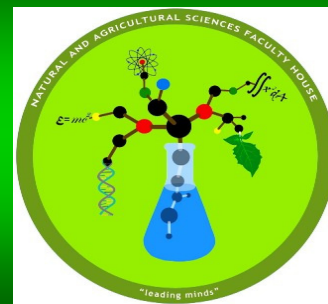

Stu's Views © 2003 Stu All Rights Reserved www.STUS.com

25 August 2011

Issue 6

NAT Newsletter

THE END OF THE ROAD, 2010/2011!

Name : Mpho Selepe
Position : Webmaster and NATNewsletter Chief Editor.
Degree : BSc. Geology
Office duty: Update the website and decided to run the maintenance of the office, and I was the pioneer of the NATNewsletter.

Self Motto : In life; success is not about how you start, but how you finish.

Till this day where we all had to bid our farewell to our office term, it's been a journey for most of us in the committee. I remember the first day of my appointment in the office, I was proud, excited and eager to work and hopefully leave a very big mark that I will be proud of for years to come, Yeah, yeah, I know its more like a dream. The first community project in Tembisa, I knew that this was real deal, you represent an institution (Tuks), by which all your doing reflects its reputation, you could not afford to smear trouble on that. Even though my job was mainly web mastering and editorial (NATNewsletter), I came to want to help organize some community projects with the Com Projects guys, tell you what, it wasn't easy! but I managed to pull one through when we went to visit a high school in in Katlehong.

We had to keep in to our year-plan, and this time we had one more school to help. Well, during this time we had a school's recycling competition running behind the scenes in Mamelodi. At the same time we visited Lehlabile high school for career-wise guidance (grade 9's), behind this scene was the organization of the Com project in Kwamhlanga, Mpumalanga. Ofcourse, the NATNewsletter was still coming out as usual, therefore proving that man can also multitask. We had run our course, and thanks to my office and newsletter team for the great work till the end of our road. We are not stopping, but trudging ahead uphill to make our new mark. What mark have you made?

As a Webmaster and the pioneer of this newsletter I'm proud to say that we surely closed-off with a bang! receiving SRC certificates for best Website, Newsletter and Community projects. Well, I told that I will leave a mark, on the wall, in a frame, on your face!

411

Has it that...

Rumour has it that... the outgoing Secretary General of the Student Representative Council (SRC), Katlego Malatji seriously ridiculed anyone that tried asking him questions at the SRC society circus on Thursday, 01 September 2011.

Just so you know, you better think about what you say to that man before he tells you to visit the library and study because you are acting daft in front of the whole Tuks citizenry.

So what was up with the crazy chick at the circus? Why does one reverse going green by taking cans OUT of the bin and throwing them at SRC candidates? Emotionally attached to student politics maybe? Apparently she has a crush on one of the candidates and got denied.

Huh!...lol...

The team behind this...

Name: Nthabiseng "Just Nthaby" Nooe
Degree: BSc. Geology
Favourite quote: "You are only as good as you let yourself become" - Tiger Woods

Message: It is always great when one wants to offer themselves to provide a service to others, wholeheartedly for nothing in return. Great thanks to the NATS that go through the trouble of viewing our creative way of information sharing. I am NATS about all of you.

Name: Luyanda "Lulu" Nzama
Degree: BSc. Four Year Programme (Physical Science)
Favourite quote: "The recipe to failure is trying to please everyone." - S. Patel

Message: To the "randomz" who read the newsletter, I congratulate you for breaking the barrier of a "typical student" and taking notice of the things around you, basically surviving and concurring oblivion. I am forever grateful!

Name: Sina Malebana
Degree: Biological Sciences
Favourite quote: "I can do all things, through God who strengthens me."

Message: Thank you so much to NATHouse for the opportunity to take part in this. Newsletter. I as well as the NATNewsletter team made sure that we put our very best into it and trust that you enjoyed and learned something new from it every time. Personally, I look forward to many more issues.

Send a query to NATHouse : s28498501@tuks.co.za

NATHouse office : Agric annex 2-8

